IN NEW BERN TODAY

Some of us didn't stay out of classrooms very long after New Bern High closed for vacation. We plunged into Bible school at our various churches, where we served as instructors and assistants.

Almost always there is a great need for workers, and devoting time and effort to a cause like this is not only worthwhile but very satisfying.

These Bible schools last only a short while, and we will have plenty of time to seek outdoor pleasure in the weeks ahead. A number of the teen-age crowd are counselors at camp in our section this summer, and a lot of us envy them for their good fortune.

Being a counselor is a responsibility, and there's plenty of work. However, just like Bible school, you can find joy in the realization that you're contributing to the success of a very good cause.

Needless to say, most of us are on the go these days. We're heading for Atlantic Beach frequently, and doing a lot of swimming and skiing at Trent Pines and the New Bern Golf and Country Club.

We were happy to see Beth Lansche back in town for a vaca-

Originally from South Carolina, he started with Seashore on June 15, 1925, when the company first began operating. He married Grace Eubanks of Belgrade, has a son—Jack, Jr.—and lives in Washington.

Jack isn't one to preach or give other advice. But, because we requested it, he offers the following tips on how to drive defensively: Keep alert, think ahead, be adaptable, pace yourself by the traffic around you, stay in one lane, obey traffic laws, use common sense, be courteous.

He says, "If you watch out for the safety of others on the road, you'll find it a lot easier to live with yourself—and you'll probably live a lot longer."

That's Jack Horton, as nice a guy as ever came along.

With all of the college crowd back, New Bern is a brighter and more exciting place for teen agers. We miss them while they are gone, and everything seems to pep up a lot when they get home.

This has been an exciting few weeks for Georgia Parrott. Winning the Craven County Dairy Princess crown, and then the Miss New Bern crown, was all any teen ager could dream of. She is a very nice person, and we are happy for someone who is charming, talented and modest.
