There'll be no wealth of experience available this season, when the New Bern High school Bears take to the court for their basketball games. Cliffie Rowe and Mark Dunn are the veterans counted on to steady some of the newcomers on a varsity squad that has promising depth.

Making up the squad, with Rowe and Dunn, are Walt Mizelle, Glenn Dunn, Robert Brock, Joe Slater, John Anderson, Norman Swindell, Butch Ricks, Vance Wrenn, Donald Davis and Doug Brock.

Coach Bob Lewis must rely on five sophomores for a good bit of the action—Swindell, Ricks, Davis, Doug Brock and Glenn Dunn. It is interesting to note that there are three juniors on the squad too—Rowe, Slater and Robert Brock—so aside from its present possibilities the team has a future potential.

Our guess is that Mark Dunn will come into his own this year as a star of the first magnitude. Certainly, he appears to have all the qualifications for a consistent series of stellar performances.

Offhand, we would say too that Robert Brock will make a valuable contribution to the ball club. He has the right attitude and the will to win. He should be a good rebounder, and barring possible erratic play at times is apt to be a troublesome contender for Northeastern Conference opponents to handle.

Just how well the Bruins will fare in the loop campaign is problematical. As of now they could hardly be labeled with the mark of greatness. You've really got to have an extra special something to succeed in a circuit as talent-laden as the Northeastern Conference.

Coach Lewis, we suspect, will have some unhappy moments during the course of the season, but along with fans and players we hope the trials and tribulations add up to a happy ending.
