

Thoughts About Safety for the Holidays

There are "do" and "don't" rules around the tree because metallic tinsel can fall across the track, for every season of the year, and Christmas is no exception. In fact, Christmas is such a happy time that we are likely to be a little less careful about the possibility of accidents than we are at other times of the year.

Here are some suggestions for an accident-free holiday season:

Don't use any cotton, paper or flammable material for decorating the tree, or around the base of the tree. Do not place electric trains or other electric powered devices train transformer to burn.

Safe Toys

Avoid toys operated with flammable liquids. Nitrocellulose (it looks like celluloid or plastic) toys burn with surprising ferocity. Some imported toys are made of cause a short circuit and start the these flammable materials.

Select electrical appliance gifts with fire-safety in mind. Choose only those electrical toys and tree decorative lighting sets which are laboratory approved. If there is doubt, ask your fire department if they are approved.

Never place lighted candles in windows. Sentiment and flame do not mix! Keep the curtains or any other flammable material at windows pulled back at least six inches from any electric candles or wreaths.

Fire Hazards

As you unwrap gifts on Christmas Day, put all the wrappings in a carton and dispose of them promptly. Don't let them pile up around the tree, the fireplace, or any heating device.

Christmas costumes and paper or cloth decorations can be flame-proofed by dipping them into the following solution, wringing them by hand and allowing them to dry: 3 quarts water, 7 oz. borax, 3 oz. boric acid.

The death of Christ is a great mystery; but His birth is even a greater. That He should live a human life at all is stranger than that, so living. He should die a human death. I can scarcely get past His cradle in my wondering, to wonder at His cross. The infant Jesus is, in some views, a greater marvel than Jesus with the purple robe and the crown of thorns.

Never deny the babies their Christmas! It is the shining seal set upon a year of happiness. Let them believe in Santa Claus, or St. Nicholas, or Kris Kringle, or whatever name the jolly Dutch saint bears in your religion.

The kindness of Christmas is the kindness of Christ. To know that Go so loved us as to give us His Son for our dearest brother, has brought human affection to its highest tide on the day of that Brother's birth. If God so loved us, how can we help loving one another?—Maltibe Babcock.
