

Buds
AND Blossoms
By
MAMIE MILLER

"The earth is full of riches." — Psalms 104:24. . . "He hath made everything beautiful in His time." — Eccl. 3:11.

The cone flower or Rudbeckia Purpurea is a big-bearing flower plant that has red blooms. The center is a little cone-shaped object that is very glistening in the sun. Grow them anywhere.

One of the prettiest yellow plants is the double heliopsis. It has a clear, golden yellow bloom that lasts for weeks in summer. For a lovely, old fashioned plant, be sure to grow coral bells. These come in dwarf compact plants. The leaves resemble geraniums, with graceful spikes of bright coral, crimson bell-shaped flowers. Plant these hardy plants this fall. They look lovely among rocks or a water pool.

If you are bothered with pesky birds, put out a "Scat-A-Bird" in a tree. It is an owl that you may purchase for this purpose. This will keep birds from your eaves or patio or boat.

For this week's Buds and Blossoms poem, we have chosen "Before the Beginning of Years" by Algernon Charles Swinburne. Before the beginning of years

There came to the Making of Man
Time, with a gift of tears;
Grief, with a glass that ran;
Pleasure, with pain for leaven;
Summer with flowers that fell;
Remembrance fallen from heaven,
And madness risen from hell;
Strength without hands to smite;
Love that endures for a breath;
Night, the shadow of light,
And life, the shadow of death.
And the high gods took in hand
Fire, and the falling of tears,
And a measure of sliding sand
From under the feet of the years;
And froth and drift of the sea;

Apples Choice for Your Fruit Dessert
During Fall Season

Apple desserts need never be tiring because there are so many ways to prepare them. With a plentiful supply of apples now, they can be used often in creating flavorful baked desserts.

A baked apple dessert with special appeal for children calls for filling cored apples before baking with crushed pineapple. Then after the apples have been baked, top them with marshmallows and return to the oven for a few minutes before serving.

For a colorful baked apple dessert, core some apples — being

And dust of the labouring earth;
And bodies of things to be

In the houses of death and birth;
And wrought with weeping and laughter,

And fashioned with loathing and love,

With life before and after

And death beneath and above,
For a day and a night and a

morrow,
That his strength might endure

for a span

With travail and heavy sorrow,
The holy spirit of Man.

From the winds of the North and the South

The gathered as unto strife;

They breathed upon his mouth;

They filled his body with life;

Eyesight and speech they wrought

For the veils of the soul therein,
A time for labour and thought,

A time to serve and to sin;

They gave him light in his ways,
And love, and a space for delight,

And beauty and length of days,

And night, and sleep in the night

His speech is a burning fire

With his lips he travaileth;

In his heart is a blind desire,
In his eyes for knowledge of death;

He weaves, and is clothed with

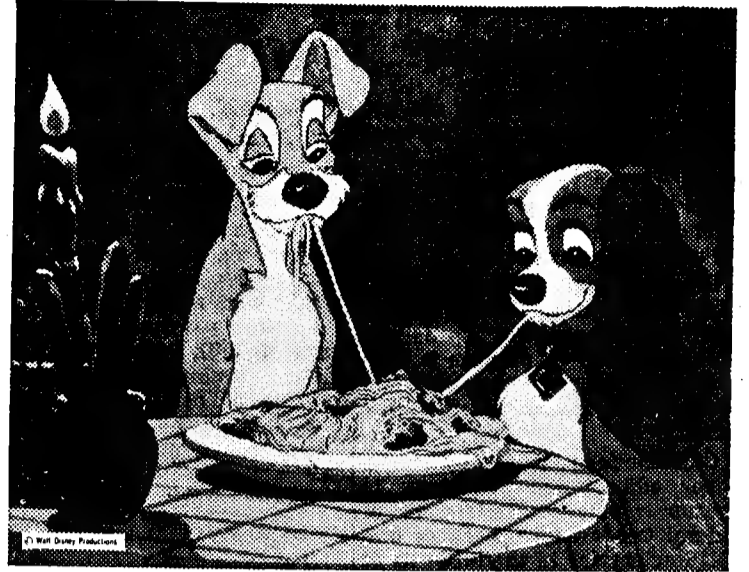

derision;

Sows, and he shall not reap;

His life is a watch or a vision

Between a sleep and a sleep.

TRYON THEATRE — Friday through Tuesday

Two motion pictures that go together like boys and dogs comprise Walt Disney's Program of Total Family Entertainment. "Lady and the Tramp," Disney's all-cartoon feature in Technicolor and CinemaScope, gives a humorous and penetrating dog's-eye view of life. It's his happiest motion picture. Also in the program is his newest picture, "Almost Angels," a full-length, live-action Technicolor movie about the Vienna Boys Choir.

careful not to cut through the blossom end — and fill cavity with cranberry sauce. Sprinkle with cinnamon. Then bake in a moderate oven until apples are tender.

A mighty popular dessert is baked apple-cheese. For a serving for six, fill a pie pan or shallow baking dish with 5 cups pared apple slices. Sprinkle lightly with lemon juice (to avert darkening) and 1/4 cup sugar.

For a crispy topping, mix together 1/2 cup sugar and 1/2 cup sifted flour and season to taste with cinnamon and salt. Cut in 1/4 cup butter until mixture is granular in texture, then stir in 2/3 cup grated sharp cheese.

In faith, I throw my fears away,
And lo! my heart is singing! —
