Exams! That's a word feared by freshmen, hated by sophomores, taken lightly by juniors, and thought more of by seniors. If you have experienced High school, you know what I mean.

Exam time isn't to be taken lightly by anyone, or should I say shouldn't be? The only advice I remember receiving that was worthwhile was to not panic, and by all means don't cram. It proved true, the ones I crammed for I did the worst on.

School life is not all STUDY, STUDY, STUDY, as you might think. There are some outside activities such as basketball. Speaking of basketball, the New Bern Bears played their first Northeastern Conference game at Jacksonville Tuesday night. We won, 62-61 in the last six seconds.

Tonight our team plays the Tarboro Tigers here, for our first Conference game at home. If you have read all the articles on school spirit, I know you will want to see the Bears play tonight.

Everyone enjoys club day, not only because we miss a class but because we get to indulge in our favorite topic, depending on what club we joined. These meetings can mean a great deal to us, when we participate to the fullest.

See you all at the game tonight, and cheer for the Bears
