

Buds AND Blossoms

By
MAMIE MILLER

"The commandment is a lamp; and the law is light and re-proofs of instruction are the way of life."—Proverbs 6:23.

Water lily pools are very beautiful in a garden. The 1963 catalogue of Three Springs Fisheries--the largest growers of water lilies and goldfish in the world--contains every need for your garden. This catalogue is free. Address your card to Three Springs Fisheries, 813 Main Road, Lilypons, Maryland.

Are you taking a trip this spring? Do you love flower gardens? Many tours are made up for your convenience. The garden tour of Europe leaves April 23 for 33 days. This tour includes Spain, Italy, France and England.

Grow your fruit in your garden on the new dwarf Bonanza Peach Bush. These trees grow only three feet tall. Bee-balm is a North American plant that all of us should enjoy. It comes in pink, red, white, or lavender.

Petunias are fast becoming one of our most dependable blooming plants for this community. They are very colorful and showy. Plant more this year of the new giant ruffled ones. The flowers are as large as six inches across, with dark, deep veins running through them.

This week, for our Buds and Blossoms poem, we have selected "Who Are My People?" by Rosa Zagnoni Marinoni.

My people? Who are they?
I went into the church where the congregation
Worshiped my God. Were they my people?

I felt no kinship to them as I knelt there.

My people! Where are they?
I went into the land where
I was born,

Where men spoke my language...
I was a stranger there.

"My people," my soul cried.
"Who are my people?"

Last night in the rain I met
an old man

Who spoke a language I do not speak,

Which marked him as one who does not know my God.

With apologetic smile he offered me

The shelter of his patched umbrella.

I met his eyes.....And then
I knew.
