About This Question:
 "My wife has been hospitalized for months—the bill is already over $4000, and I'm without hospital insurance. The patient in the next bed has a Major Medical Expense Policy from your agency. She pays the first few hundred dollars, but the huge bill is paid by the company. Does this policy cost very much?"

What's Your Postal I. Q. ?

'MAXIMUM' CARDS ARE A COLLECTORS' ITEM TRUE  FALSE

SAY, IS THERE SOMETHING THE MATTER WITH THIS CARD? — LOCK WHERE THE STAMP IS!

1. TRUE.—Picture post cards with the stamp stuck on the face of the card rather than on the address side are known as "maximum cards." Postmasters may cancel these cards and hand them back to the person presenting them. Maximum cards are considered collector's items and are given special care in canceling.

"SPOILED AEROGRAMMES MAY NOT BE REDEEMED"  TRUE  FALSE

2. FALSE.—Spoiled unmutated aerogrammes (air-letter sheets) may be exchanged for other postage-stamped paper at postage value less 1¢ each.

It's Not the Cold, but The Humidity, They Say

Humidity, that notorious destroyer of summertime comfort, can be a wintertime menace, too. But for different reasons.
 During hot summer days, the air is often damp with moisture. It's difficult for perspiration to evaporate from your skin, and you keep on mopping your brow.
 Just the opposite is true in winter. There's liable to be too little humidity.
 Humidity is simply the amount of moisture in the air, compared to the total dampness the air can hold at the same temperature.

 In winter, cold moisture-carrying air rushing into your home from outside expands with indoor warmth. As the air spreads throughout the house, the quantity of moisture in each cubic foot of air decreases. (Air at zero and 80% relative humidity drops to 5% relative humidity when heated to 76 degrees because at 76 degrees air can hold 17 times as much moisture as at zero.)
 This thirsty air steals moisture from every possible source, including your body. Nose and throat membranes may become too dry. With the protective moisture gone, these membranes may become the seat of infectious organisms, thereby increasing your susceptibility to respiratory ailments.

Mother's method was to place a water-filled pan, or deep metal container on the radiator. These makeshift moisturizers, thought helpful, vaporized only about one or two quarts of water in an evening. The water evaporated too slowly to relieve the problem of "thirsty air."

Today you can have push-button winter humidity control with an automatic device that enables you to add from 2 to 28 quarts of moisture to your family's indoor air supply each day, depending on the needs of your home.

When your family enjoys comfortable indoor winter weather for the first time, you can surprise them by saying, "In addition to the heat, it's the humidity."

KEPT HIS WORD
 Miami—"I'll be back," proclaimed the angry suitor, Thomas Bishop, 36, as he marched out of his living room leaving a distressed damsel sitting there.

 He was.
 Bishop backed out of the driveway, put his car in the wrong gear, and smashed through his picture window.
 In the living room once again, Bishop said, "Told you I'd return."

LIVING AS WE PRAY

I knelt to pray when day was done,
 And prayed "O Lord bless everyone,
 Lift from every saddened heart the pain,
 And let the sick be well again."

And then I woke another day,
 And carelessly went upon my way.
 The whole day long I did not try
 To wipe a tear from any eye.

I did not try to share the load
 Of any brother on the road.
 I did not even go to see
 The sick man just next door to me.

Yet, once again when day was done,
 I prayed, "O Lord bless everyone."
 But as I prayed, unto my ear
 There came a voice that whispered clear.

"Pause, hypocrite, before you pray,
 Whom have you tried to bless today?
 God's sweetest blessings always go
 By hands which serve Him below."

And then I hid my face and cried,
 "Forgive me, God, for I have lied.
 Let me but live another day
 And I will live the way I pray.
