

Buds AND Blossoms

By
MAMIE MILLER

"The covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods. But the Lord your God ye shall fear; and he shall deliver you out of the hands of all your enemies."--II Kings 17:38, 39.

Fill your garden in April with mums that will bloom from June until November. The Giant Football Mum blooms late, but they are beautiful for cut flowers. Detroit News, (bronze), Major Bowes, (pink) Cheyenne, (crimson), silver sheen, (white), and butterball (yellow) will give you a beautiful variety of them.

The Hardy Pompom or Button Mum are perfect for the autumn garden. These are excellent for arrangements. Bambino, Gum Drop, Wine, Bright Jewel, and Lemon Drop will supply you with perfect color.

Spidery, thread-like Fuji mums will give your garden a spectacular look. These make most interesting flower-show displays. Bird or Paradise, Larjona, Chartreuse, and Bronze Bridesmaid will make your October garden a ray of color.

Cushion mums will bloom from June until late fall. These are always hardy in this section. Lipstick, Golden Carpet, Mums Pink, Powder River, Satellite, and Snappy make your garden lovely early and late. Grow more Cushion mums this year.

The Spider Spoon and Space Mums are perfect additions for you this year. Get some of the newer colors that you see florists using.

This week's Buds and Blossoms poem may give you new courage, if things have been going wrong. Edgar A. Guest wrote the lines-titled "It Couldn't Be Done."

Somebody said that it couldn't be done,
But he with a chuckle replied
That "maybe it couldn't," but LITTLE LINDA BRUHL, Hollywood's brightest newcomer, appears as Jackie Gleason's daughter in the Paramount hit comedy, "Papa's Delicate Condition" opening Sunday at the Masonic Theatre.

he would be one
Who wouldn't say so 'till he'd tried.
So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin
On his face. If he worried he hid it.
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that;
At least no one ever has done it";
But he took off his coat and he took off his hat;
And the first thing we knew he'd begun it.

With a lift of his chin and a bit of a grin,
Without any doubting or quiddit,
He started to sing as he tackled the thing
That couldn't be done, and he did it.
There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done,
There are thousands to prophesy failure;
There are thousands to point out to you, one by one,

The dangers that wait to assail you.
But just buckle in with a bit of a grin,
Just take off your coat and go to it;
Just start to sing as you tackle the thing
That "cannot be done," and you'll do it.

Think naught a trifle, though it small appear: Small sands the mountain, moments make the year.--Edward Young
