When you are dining on the terrace or outside for a picnic, use a trap to catch insects. The Black Light insect trap clears three acres of all flying insects, including flies and mosquitoes. Sounds like an eating pleasure for the summer. Order them from Scott Mitchell House F. G. S., 415 South Broadway, Yonkers, N. Y.

Peonies in this section have been beautiful. They do well in most kinds of weather. Loren Franklin (pink)—Mother's Day (white)—Myrtle Gentry (rosy white and fragrant)—Nick Shaylor (rose markings) and Tempest (clear dark red) are the 1963 "Prize Package" of peonies.

Plant the seed of sweet alyssum now for a good border plant. It will bloom six weeks after planting, and will live through most mild winters.

Our Buds and Blossoms poem

this week—"Watch Yourself Go By"—was written by Strickland Gillian.

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by;

Think of yourself as "he" instead of "I".

Note, closely as in other men you note,

The bag-kneed trousers and the seedy coat.

Pick flaws; find fault; forget the man is you,

And strive to make your estimate ring true.

Confront yourself and look you in the eye--

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

Interpret all your motives just as though

You looked on one whose aims you did not know.

Let undisguised contempt surge through you when

You see you shirk, O commonest of men!

Despise your cowardice; condemn whate'er

You note of falseness in you anywhere.

Defend not one defect that shames your eye--

Just stand aside and watch yourself go by.

And then, with eyes unveiled to what you loathe,

To sins that with sweet charity you'd clothe,

Back to your self-walled tenement you'll go

With tolerance for all who dwell below.

The faults of others then will dwarf and shrink,

Love's chain grow stronger by one mighty link,

When you, with "he" as substitute for "I",

Have stood aside and watched yourself go by.
