Last Friday night, in the New Bern High school gymnasium, the Student-Faculty game was held. This has become a yearly event because of such popularity it has obtained.

You have not seen anything until you have seen our "refined sedate" teachers on the court acting like we should be acting. (Well--most of us.)

Credit should be given to the players. On the Men's team (faculty) there were Mr. Hart, Mr. Anders, Mr. Godwin, Mr. Prescott, Mr. Hopkins and Mr. Grady. On the student team were Gram Dixon, Ralph Pollock, Dale Goldman, Skip Crayton, Earl Williams, John Smith, Dickie Dickinson, Tom Marsh and David Hale.

Coach for the Women's team (faculty) was Miss Margaret Fishel. Players were Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. Karam, Mrs. Jernigan, Mrs. Briggs, Mrs. Finch, Miss Hill and Mrs. Grady. On the student team were Ann Hammond, Cheryl Cobb, Sally King, Linda Daniels, Jan Lee, Noni White, Margaret Lamm, Bunny Zaytoun, Ginny Kennel, Judy Williams, Linda Edwards, and Alma McSorley.

Cheerleaders for the Students were Terry Faulkner, Bobby Griffin, Bill Rivenbark, Ricky Green, Mike Goodwin and Stan Braddy. Cheerleaders for the faculty were Mrs. Helen Smith, Mrs. Willis, Mrs. Watson, Miss Meredith (don't ask us how!)

You can imagine what type games were played. In my opinion, the women's teams are the best to watch. The men seem awfully dull, don't you think? A little too much seriousness. You couldn't help but laughing at their get-ups. Honestly, the men have excellent taste, but heavens, the women with their bloomers and sailor blouses. Tom and David were also present, to make this event the most.

Here are the fortunate ones who were voted for this year's Senior Superlatives at NBHS. Most talented--Judy Stewart and Lloyd Lane; Most dependable--Lynn Watson and Billy Pierce; Most versatile--David Pugh and Sally King; Best Personality--Ellen Lansche and Billy Prescott; Most intellectual--Barbara Wetherington and Leslie Morris; Best student leadership -- Barbara

THEIR CHOICE—New Bern High school seniors have singled out Sallie King as most versatile girl in the class of '64. As you can see, she is not only versatile but charming.

Wetherington and John Smith. Well, next week is vacation time again. As for myself I'm taking off for the northern countries. Only three more school days, students, before we have freedom again. I do believe we actually have six complete days of leisure awaiting us. Until next week, be careful driving--especially you teenagers.
