

Buds AND Blossoms

By MAMIE MILLER

Most annuals need a well drained soil, with an application of rotted manure, plus a standard commercial fertilizer.

Make cuttings of lilacs now. Make cuttings 6 inches long. Take leaves from stems, and splice the stem 2 inches up.

Place cutting in the sand. Cut blooms from lilacs as soon as they fade on bush. Leaves will turn brown if they are too highly fertilized, or lack sufficient water.

A magnolia tree will bloom in about 4 years. If they are planted in a sunny, open location, they will bloom. Magnolias like a rich soil with added cow manure. You may move a magnolia tree soon after it blooms.

We are fortunate to live in a section of lovely old homes and plantations with beautiful gardens. Wilmington has its azaleas, camellias, Spanish moss, holly and dogwood. It has its famous holly tree.

New Bern has its quaint buildings, pocket gardens, and pots and plot gardens. It is filled with crepe myrtles, dogwoods, red buds, and azaleas and camellias. Tryon Palace is an outstanding asset to New Bern, from a historical, architectural and beauty standpoint.

One look at the garden brings back the memory of yesterday. Take time to enjoy the beautiful things about us.

There is always time for love, even amid the dangers of the African veldt. Shirley Eaton and Harry Guardino in a romantic moment from "Rhino!", Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's thrill-packed wild life drama, filmed in color entirely on locations in Zululand, South Africa. Robert Culp co-stars as an American scientist dedicated to saving the vanishing white rhino from extinction through the use of tranquilizer bullets.

"Don't Give Up," by Phoebe Cary.

If you've tried, and have not won,
Do not stop for crying;
All that's great and good is done
Just by patient trying.

Though young birds, in flying, fall,
Still their wings grow stronger;
And the next time they can keep
Up a little longer.

Though the sturdy oak has known
Many a blast that bowed her,
She has risen again, and grown
Loftier and prouder.
If by easy work you beat,
Who the more will prize you?
Gaining victory from defeat,
That's the test that tries you.

What's COOKING?

When political candidates are campaigning in eastern North Carolina, they get their fill of barbecue. It's the accepted meal for large gatherings. Tar Heels in general like pork served in this manner.

However, you can get too much of a good thing, even barbecue, and office seekers are so sick of their steady diet of pig meat that privately they're grunting in disgust.

Professional after dinner speakers can sympathize with the politicians. Every word juggler on the banquet circuit gets so tired of seeing a dab of garden peas and a mound of creamed potatoes that some of them wonder if their fees for speaking are sufficient compensation. Perhaps you're too busy eat-
