

Buds AND Blossoms

By
MAMIE MILLER

"They helped every one his neighbour; and every one said to his brother, Be of good courage."--Isa. 41:6.

Grandis is a blue-eyed African daisy. Plant these in a sunny, dry and sandy soil. It will grow 2 feet tall, and flourish with flowers from June until frost.

When you plant your seed or plant your blue ageratum, include some "Snow Carpet" white ageratum too. It also comes in pink, Blue Mist, Snow Carpet and Fairy Pink will make a beautiful border.

If you ever grow asters, you can never forget them. Cactus-flowered asters grow 3-inch flowers of many twisted and pointed petals. They are wilt resistant and nice to cut.

Beverly Hills, El Monte, Hollywood, Palm Springs and Santa Barbara are all super giants. Green Eyes is a 3-inch pure white, with green crested eyes. They grow 2 feet and make lovely arrangements.

Asters bloom from August until frost, if you make successive plantings. They are not easily damaged, and aren't hard to take care of.

Candytuft Fairy is a trim, dome-like, 8 inch plant completely covered with pink flowers. They look like a rich carpet. These come in shades of flesh pink, white, crimson, carmine, lavender and rose.

Include Forenia or Wish Bone Flowers in your border. It will bloom the year round in pots, but it looks very much like pansies and is very pretty in your border all summer.

Can you think of a nicer Valentine for someone than a gift of your own flowers, attractively arranged? Or if you prefer, a potted plant would be a lasting remembrance.

This week, for our Buds and Blossoms poem, we turn to these lines by Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

If thou must love me, let it be for nought Except for love's sake only. Do not say "I love her for her smile--her look--her way Of speaking gently--for a trick of thought That falls in well with mine, and

"IT'S INCREDIBLE," thinks Tony Curtis as he listens to Debbie Reynolds in this scene from the 20th Century-Fox comedy in CinemaScope and De Luxe Color, "Goodbye Charlie" which opens Friday at the Tryon Theatre. She has just told him that she is the reincarnation of a recently-shot male.

A creature might forget to weep,

Thy comfort long, and lose

But love me for love's sake,
That evermore
Thou mayst love on, through love's eternity.
