

Buds AND Blossoms

By
MAMIE MILLER

"If ye walk in my statutes, and keep my commandments, and do them; Then I will give you rain in due season, and the land shall yield her increase, and the trees of the field shall yield their fruit."--Lev. 26:3,4.
Aphus suck plant juices, feed on new shoots, buds and leaves. Use Isotox or dust with Ortho Rose Dust. Beetles chew leaves and flowers. They may be checked by using Isotox. Leaf hoppers eat the underside of leaves. Watch the leaves to see if there are white dots on them.

Cineraria and columbine are infested with leaf miners. They work between the upper and lower leaf surfaces. Earwings feed on leaves, fruit, paper and cloth. They come into the house too. During the day they hide under pots and fences. Spray each two weeks to keep them away.
Slugs and snails chew large holes in leaves and flowers. In the spring, when daffodils are in bud, sprinkle Bug-geta pellets throughout the garden.
Protect frogs, as they will help you decrease insects. Zinnia require spraying to prevent mildew and leaf spot.
This week, for our Buds and Blossoms poem, we bring you "The Town of Don't-You-Worry" by L. J. Bartlett.

There's a town called "Don't You-Worry,
On the banks of River Smile;
Where the Cheer-Up and Ben-Happy
Blossom sweetly all the while.
Where the Never-Grumble flower
Blooms beside the fragrant Try,
And the Ne'er-Give-Up and Patience
Point their faces to the sky.

In the valley of Contentment,
In the province of I-Will,
You will find this lovely city,
At the foot of No-Fret Hill.
There are thoroughfares delightful
In this very charming town,
And on every hand are shade trees
Named the Very-Seldom-Frown.
Rustic benches quite enticing
You'll find scattered here and there;
And to each a vine is clinging
Called the Frequent-Earnest-Prayer.
Everybody there is happy
And is singing all the while,
In the town of Don't-You-Worry,
On the banks of River Smile.

It is practically a law in life that when one door closes to us, another opens. The trouble is that we often look with so much regret and longing upon the closed door that we do not see the one which has opened to us.--Anon.

NAUTICAL.—Bold white stripes and breezy styling are major trends in men's wear for summer. Here striped cotton Bermuda shorts are teamed with a coordinated cotton knit shirt.

Looking Glass--

Each time the switch was flipped, that night and on succeeding nights, the crying started all over again. Neither Paul nor Margaret had the heart to listen to the whimpering, so they cut the thing off for keeps and suffered the consequences.
Wouldn't you know it. The day the little birds stretched their wings and departed on their own, a cool spell arrived. The Stevens could use their air conditioner now, but didn't need it.

Vanity lavatories are finding their way into more and more bedrooms these days. These installations offer all the advantages of a dresser — counter area, drawer space, a wide expanse of mirror — plus the added advantage of a modern lavatory with hot and cold water.
