

Buds AND Blossoms

By
MAMIE MILLER

"And God said, Let there be light: and there was light."-- Gen. 1:3.

It is time to begin thinking of next year's garden. The following will help you decide which bulbs and plants to put together to make a pleasing combination.

Group pale blues with shades of pink and rose. Blue is also pretty with mild yellow. This is why dwarf blue phlox is lovely with daffodils. Use orange with blue, such as orange wallflower and blue phlox.

Yellow and purple are real pretty. Don't use red, crimson or scarlet with yellow. Green foliage softens red.

It is time now to plant foxgloves, hollyhock, and delphinium for next year. Select key plants for line, nass, color and dependability for borders. Include in this hemerocallis, delphinium, phlox, chrysanthemums, iris, peonies and lilies for a lovely garden.

For our Buds and Blossoms poem, we bring you these lines from "The River Of Life" by Thomas Campbell.

The more we live, more brief appear
Our life's succeeding stages;
A day to childhood seems a year,
And years like passing ages.

The glad some current of our youth,
Ere passion yet disorders,
Steals lingering like a river smooth
Along its grassy borders.

But as the care-worn cheek grows wan
And sorrows shafts fly thicker,
Ye stars, that measure life to man,
Why seem your courses quicker?

When joys have lost their bloom and breath

And life itself is vapid,
Why, as we reach the Falls of Death,
Feel we its tide more rapid?

It may be strange--yet who would change
Time's course to slower speeding,
When one by one our friends have gone
And left our bosom bleeding?

Heaven gives our years of fading strength
Indemnifying fleetness,
And those of youth, a seeming length,
Proportion'd to their sweetness.
