

Once A Year

So that those who bring you THE MIRROR may have an opportunity to observe Christmas, we will not publish an edition next Friday. All of us wish you a happy and meaningful Yuletide, and a New Year filled with dreams come true.

NUMBER 39

HERE AT LAST—This will be the very first Christmas for John Gainey, three-month-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Kesler Gainey, Jr., of Vanceboro. We're featuring him on the front page of our Yuletide issue, after considering countless other possibilities, because his wide-eyed wonder expresses perfectly a child's reaction to all the joys of the holiday season. Eunice Wray, whose photographs of children are invariably delightful, recorded his mood on film.
