STEWART GRANGER tells beautiful Gabriella Licudi to keep the jade token she has taken from his home in Paramount Pictures' action-adventure, "The Last Safari," opening Sunday at the Masonic Theatre. "The Last Safari" tells the story of one man's courageous fight to preserve the wild life of Africa against the unconcern of white hunters. The Technicolor production, which was filmed entirely on location in Africa, also stars newcomer Kas Garas in his first important screen role. Noted director, Henry Hathaway, also produced "The Last Safari," from a screenplay by John Gay.
