Bucks

will accumulate these Fireman's Bucks and on Fireman's Day there will be an auction of items that have been donated by the participating merchants of Craven County. Ask the merchants you trade with to give you the Fireman's Bucks when you make a purchase. New Bern merchants may be participating so ask them for the Fireman's Bucks when you make a purchase. The merchant will determine how many bucks to give his customers for their purchases. It could be one for one or on some items it could be two for every dollar's worth of purchases. Save your Fireman's Bucks so you can bid on the nice prizes. You can read in the Highlights each week

Dear Libby

Dear Libby: I'm a very sad girl. I'm 14 years old. I've just found out my daddy is seing other women. My parents fuss alot and Mom cries alone in her room when he's gone at night. I'm very confused and bitter at my dad. What can I do to help? hurry with your answer.

VERY FRIGHTENED.

Dear Very Frightened: It's very sad that you have to know about this at a time you are trying to grow up yourself. Your trust in your father has been shattered. Ask him for a few minutes of his time to talk with you and let him know how this is affecting your relationship with him. Tell him you are resentful and very insecure. Ask him to try his best to work things out.

As for Mom, go out of your way to be kind to her and help out with household chores to take some of the strain off of her. Let me know how things work out. Ask God to help you through these troubles times. I'm pulling for you. LIBBY

Dear Libby: My problem is with family coming for visits. I am a sickly person myself. I love to have them to come but they don't help with any cooking, making beds or any cleaning up behind themselves. I don't want hurt feelings, so what can I do? EXHAUSTED IN VANCEBORO.

Dear Exhausted: Just tell them you love to have them come but you would appreciate them helping you. Just come out and ask them to help you with different chores. If that doesn't work tell them you are too sick to be having company staying over. Good luck. LIBBY.

Scouts' Court of Honor slated for Sept. 11

Boy Scout Troop 58 will hold a Court of Honor at 7:30 p.m. on September 11, at the Vanceboro United Methodist Church. At this time Stacy Lee will be in charge and will be assisted by Program Director Keith Cannon and Senior Patrol Leader Glenn Forrest. At the Court of Honor parents are urged to come and participate because this is when the scouts receive the badges both they and their parents have worked so hard to earn during summer vacation.

This will also be an organization meeting. Patrols will be formed and staff will be elected. Organization will be under direction of Keith Cannon, Program Director. He will be assisted by Scoutmaster Richard Cannon, assistants Richard Bowers, and Lee Johnson.

Refreshments will be served. Each parent is asked to bring their favorite refreshment, cookie, candy, cake, or ice cream to share with other scout families.

Any family who has a son eleven years old and wishes to register him in Troop 58 should attend this Court of Honor and organization meeting. All scouts are requested to wear full uniform for Court of Honor.
