Eagles fall, 14-6

Vanceboro, N.C.--The West Craven Eagles suffered its second loss of the season at the hands of the Jones Senior Trojans, 14-6. Jones Senior opened the scoring with a sixty yard scamper for a touchdown in the first quarter. The Eagles responded about midway in the second quarter when Al Warmack plunged in from the one. Both teams failed their extra point tries leaving a 6-6 halftime deadlock. Just before the half ended Warmack completed a twenty-five yard pass to Cliff Skinner putting the Eagles on the two yard line. The Trojan defense stiffened throwing the Eagle offense for a loss as the half ended. Late in the third quarter, Jones Senior scored what turned out to be the winning touchdown on a five yard halfback option pass. The extra points try succeeded putting the Eagles on the short end of a 14-6 score. According to Assistant Coach Don Hughes, the Eagles simply failed to cash in on the many scoring opportunities that were available. "We moved the ball very easily," Hughes commented, "until we got within scoring distance; then we seemed to slow down." Hughes added that he thought the team was enthusiastic and came ready to play, however, they couldn't make the big plays when needed.

Sorely missed in the Eagle lineup was Terry Jenkins, thought by many to be a certain All-Conference pick. Jenkins suffered torn ligaments last week against New Bern, but is expected to see limited action against Pamlico tomorrow night. Fumbles also hurt the Eagles' momentum. Twice when the Eagles were moving the ball well, a fumble stopped the attack.

The Eagles take on the Pamlico Hurricanes this Friday night in Eagle Stadium. Pamlico this year has been very impressive. Against perennial 3-A power Havelock, the 2-A team lost by a modest 6-0. Last week, the Hurricanes blew away Aurora, 52-0. According to Coach Jordan, the Eagles will have their hands full trying to handle Pamlico's three major college prospects; Doug Smith, a 265 pound lineman named by many as the best in the state; Keith Cowell who like his two brothers before him is a superb split end; and Fisher, a powerful running back who is certain to garnish All-East honors.

Randolph Hardy

Scoring:
JS -- 60 yd. run (run failed)
WC -- Warmack 1 yd. (kick failed)
JS -- 5 yd. pass (run)

West Craven - 0 6 0 0-6
Jones Senior - 6 0 8 0-14
