Eagles hurricaned, 30-16

Vanceboro, N.C.—Back James Fisher rushed for 188 yards and four touchdowns as Pamlico routed the West Craven Eagles, 30-16. A bright spot in the otherwise dismal evening was the pass receiving of West's tight end, Jeff Jones. Jones snared three aeriels for 89 yards and two touchdowns. Defensively for the Eagles, Howard Coward had 26 tackles while James Roach had 24. The Eagles, now 1-3 have a two week breather before traveling to Ficklen Stadium where they play 4-A power Greenville Rose.

Dear Libby

I was born in Vanceboro 39 years ago, so I have enjoyed your paper very much. My problem is rather simple really. I would like to use your column to get my brother who lives in Vanceboro to come and visit me. Every year he tells me next year. Well, here it is again and he still didn't come. He really has no excuse any more as his only daughter is married and has a child and he gets a paid vacation. He has a pilot's license and I live close to an airport. Confused in Nebraska.

Dear confused in Nebraska:
We are so glad you are now receiving our edition of the HIGHLIGHTS.

It was so nice of you to let us know you are enjoying it. Thank you for consulting me. Why don't you try and come to Vanceboro? If there's a financial reason why you couldn't make the trip to Vanceboro I can truly understand.

Families or friends just don't take time to visit much anymore. Our lives seem to be like a merry-go-round. We do need to stop it sometimes for ourselves and others. Before we know it death takes a loved one and we say, "Oh! How I wish I'd taken the time to visit, call or written this person." Try to keep in touch with your brother, then you'll have no regrets. I hope he will see this and will pay a visit to you soon. Keep me informed. Libby.
