If you are losing hair, is it best to keep brushing, combing and shampooing hair to a minimum? - I.L.

Brushing and combing as well as massaging should be kept to a minimum. There is no evidence that shampooing, even daily, increases the rate of hair loss. When shampooing, avoid vigorous scalp massage; overmanipulation could be counter-productive.

I have difficulty swallowing tablets and capsules. Do you have any suggestions? — M.T.

Drink-A-Pill is a drinking glass designed to aid children and adults who have difficulty swallowing pills because of the choking-gagging reflex. The plastic glass is partially filled, and the medicine is place on the built-in shelf. As the user drinks, the medicine is washed down the throat.

Is medicine safe to take for pregnant women? — L.D. If medicines are taken without medical supervision, you are asking for trouble. During the first three months of pregnancy the fetus is highly susceptible to damage by foreign substances. Even aspirin, which most people think is safe, can result in excessive bleeding during delivery. Before you take any medicine consult with your physician.
