

Asbury Bazaar a big success

The women of the Asbury United Methodist Church held their annual bazaar Saturday, Nov. 11 at the Asbury Fire Station.

The bazaar included delicious baked goods, a country store, the Christmas shop, and an arts and craft sale featuring several quilts made by the ladies of the church.

Hot dogs, sandwiches, ham and sausage biscuits, coffee and soft drinks were served throughout the day.

Proceeds from the bazaar each year go to the building fund of the church. The ladies wish to thank everyone for their cooperation in making the day such a success.

Miss Sherry Register was honored on her thirteenth birthday, Nov. 16 with a skating party held at Rollerland given by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Register. Sherry was presented gifts by the 30 guests present. Refreshments of cake, ice cream, potato chips and soft drinks were served.

Miss Karen Amerson spent the weekend in Greenville and attended the Homecoming Game at East Carolina University.
