Senior Citizens party planned

The Senior Citizens of this area are being entertained on Sunday, December 10th at three o'clock in the Fellowship Hall of the Vanceboro Christian Church. Ho! Ho! Ho!

We are hoping to have a good time with these young Seniors. Plans are being made by the Christian Women's Fellowship for each one to have lots of fun. There will be singing of Christmas carols, games, special music, gifts and refreshments. Ho! Ho! Ho! and maybe there will be a big surprise.

The president, Mrs. Jill Campbell, hopes this year's party will be as successful as in the past. To give the seniors some happiness and joy at Christmas is our goal.

It has become an annual event for the C.W.F. to entertain the Senior Citizens at Christmas. So here we go. Ho! Ho! Ho!

Create a Cozy Corner

Shelving by Knappe & Vogt

Make your guests really feel at home. Tuck a sitting room in a corner of your guest bedroom. Just get a comfortable chair, a footstool... and some shelves. Colorful Knappe & Vogt shelves will make that corner cozy.

Willis elected chairman

New Bern, N.C.--"We will both learn together," John Willis said, addressing students from West Craven High School, shortly after being elected chairman of the five man Craven County Board of Commissioners last Monday. An overflow crowd watched as new commissioner Gerald Anderson nominated Willis "after much thought on the matter." Willis pledged to do everything he can to serve Craven County as a whole. He indicated that he

A WORD OF PRAISE AND THANKS!

We would like to extend our deepest thanks to all our friends and relatives for the gifts, cards, phone calls, visits, and prayers during the recent illness of our son, Anthony. A special thanks to the doctors and those who cared for Anthony while he was in the hospital. It would have been impossible to go through these troublesome times without the faith, love, and prayers of the many people who cared. We are praising God that He has answered our prayers for Anthony and feel that his healing is made complete. We covet your continuous prayers as we make frequent visits to Duke in the months to come. Again, thank you and to God be the glory!

Sincerely,
Beck and Patty Bennett
