

Cockroaches

Because cockroaches are wanderers, they can carry diseases. Surprisingly, they are among the cleanest of insects. If a roach touches a human, the first thing it does after fleeing for safety is clean itself.

Keep Flour

Keep a small quantity of flour in an old spice jar with a perforated top or in a salt shaker. It comes in handy for quick use to dust cake pans, coat meat or thicken gravy.

Holly Hill celebrates homecoming

God has been blessing at Holly Hill Church over the past quarter and the congregation shares some of these events with you. On Sunday, October 8, 1978, the church held their annual homecoming. The pastor, Rev. L.B. Avery, brought the morning message and was used of God to bless the hearts of all present. The church was filled with the many friends and members who had come to share in this special day of activities. During the morning service a special dedication ceremony was held in praise for the work accomplished in the year. Following the lunch, the Oak Street Youth Choir from Goldsboro presented a very well-performed and spiritual concert of gospel music.

This date marked the completion of a church beautification project which had been begun earlier in the fall. The outside of the church was painted; renovation of the heating and air conditioning system was done; renewal of the public address system was completed; and the installation of a much larger rostrum area and a beautiful solid oak altar and kneeling pad across the front of the church was finished. The altar was built by a local cabinet builder, Mr. Theodore Morris, who is a special friend of the church. His mother, Mrs. Delonia Morris, was an early member of the Holly Hill Church; and Mr. Morris donated a large portion of this lovely altar in memory of his parents. A bronze plaque on the altar reads "In loving memory of Mr. and Mr. Webster Morris."

The Women's Auxiliary of the church began a project of carpeting the sanctuary of the church and the two adjoining Sunday School classrooms hoping to complete the project by the end of 1979. However, with much hard work--the ladies making pledges and proceeds from the Bazaar--and with the help of other church members, funds were quickly raised and the project was completed in time for the 1978 Homecoming Day. The church is grateful to all its friends and members who contributed both money and labor toward these projects. Most of all, the congregation is thankful to God for His blessings upon each effort.

Pastory Avery was honored later in the year with a surprise birthday party where he received many nice gifts. Also at Christmas the parsonage family enjoyed a bounty of gifts from those who love them in this community.

On December 31--in closing out the year 1978--the church had a special candle-light worship and communion service. This was a wonderful way to begin a new year with commitments being made to renew dedication to God and make the new year of 1979 be the best ever.
