Youth Group Meets

The Youth Group of the Vanceboro Pentecostal Holiness Church held their meeting on Wednesday night, March 3rd.

Mrs. Alma Drake welcomed each one and opened with each one giving their prayer request and each one saying a sentence prayer.

They were read an article on The Judgements of God.

Each one that attends the meetings are asked to write as many words as they would like on WHAT THE YOUTH MEETINGS MEAN TO ME.

Those that have already been turned in have blessed their Leaders, more than words could ever describe. A few of their reasons are as follows: It gives them a chance to ask questions, they can discuss problems, keeps young people off the streets, they say their leaders are God sent, they would love to have it every Wednesday night, they have grown in Christ, God is first in the meetings and they do things that are also fun.

I'm sure any Youth Leader sometimes gets discouraged and think their work's in vain, but according to these reports it assures me that God must surely be pleased with the fruits of our labor. So I think this is a good way to know what the young people are learning.

They said The Pledge of Allegiance in unison and were reminded what the colors stand for and to thank God for their freedom.

Our Motto: LOVE ONE ANOTHER AS I HAVE LOVED YOU. They were encouraged to witness at every opportunity. But the greatest thing is to let the joy of the Lord be seen in you by showing LOVE. Don't judge people, let God do that, He commands us to love them.

They sang their theme song "He's still Working On Me", and Mrs. Drake dismissed with prayer. Everyone had a wonderful time in the Lord.
