White - Heath Wed

Miss Janet Joy White, daughter of Mrs. Carroll P. White and the late Mr. Carroll P. White of Vanceboro, and Kenneth Jackson Heath, Jr., son of Mr. & Mrs. Kenneth J. Heath of Grifton, N.C. were married Saturday, April 10th at the home of Mrs. Carrol P. White with Rev. Ralph Bennett officiating. She was given in marriage by her mother.

The wedding took place at an improvised alter on a bridge over the swimming pool surrounded by floating candles and baskets of white glads and mums.

"Love the World Away", "The Wedding Prayer", "Endless Love", was sung by Marion Allen and Clara Lou Ipock. Sandra McCandless was the pianist.

Miss White, escorted by her brother, Butch White, wore a white organza gown with chantilly lace sleeves and neckline trimmed in seed pearls with an organza bow in back. On her head, she wore a picture hat trimmed in chantilly lace and seed pearls with a finger-tip veil. She carried a lace fan with six red roses.

Maid of Honor was Glory Potter. She wore a light blue long evening gown with jacket trimmed with lace and carried a long stemmed red rose.

Bridesmaids were Brenda Provost, sister of the bride; Kathy Smith, sister of the bride; Teresa Clark; Gloria White, sister-in-law of the bride.

Dawn Parrish, niece of the bride, was the Junior Bridesmaid.

Kelly Lancaster and Elisha Jolly were the Flowergirls. They wore blue dresses with white pinafores and carried baskets with red and white rose petals.

Mark Wetherington was Best man. Ushers were Mike Baldree, half brother of the bridegroom; Tim Wetherington, David Provost, Andy Maxey and Jimmy Sutton.

Brad White, brother of the bride, was Junior Usher.

The bride's mother's dress was long mauve rose with a jacket. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

The bridegroom's mother wore a beige dress with jacket. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

A reception was given by the bride's family at the home of the bride. The table was decorated with a cloth crocheted by the bride's grandmother, centered with a silver vase filled with red and white carnations on a mirror tile surrounded by candles in crystal holders.

Mrs. Frances Tetterton and Mrs. Neil Asby, aunts of the bride, assisted with the reception.

The bride and bridegroom are seniors at West Craven High School.
