Grubb Administrator Of The Year

At the Annual Educational Bosses' Night Banquet held last week at Ramada Inn, Ms. Bertha Grubb, Deputy Assistant Superintendent for Instruction, was named Administrator of The Year. She was chosen because of the work she has done helping the EOP members during the past year. The award was presented by her secretary, Ms. Renae Pegram.

Other presentations made at the banquet were: Ms. Dot Dixon received State and National Certificates for Professional Standards Program, Ms. Marion Dubois and Ms. Marie Lansche each received the Advanced Level III Professional Standards Program certificate.

The bosses were treated to a delicious meal and some very fine entertainment. Mike Thompson, visiting artist Craven Community College, rendered several songs to the group. He called on one of the members of the audience to accompany him in one of his

Rescue Squad Day A Success

Staff Writer

Rescue Squad Day in Vanceboro is shown in pictures as a success with good participation in the parade, in cooking barbecue, and of course a gathering is not complete without the representative of our government officials.

Mrs. Louis Toler says the day was a success in fund raising for the squad. All the members were very pleased with the results. She explained at press time the receipts and expenses had not completely been figured. She plans to give the results in a future article.

Purser Crowned Princess

Miss Kim Purser, daughter of Mrs. Keith Wetherington and Mr. Charlie H. Purser was crowned Miss Vanceboro Rescue Squad Princess 1982. The runner up in the contest was Miss Tina Marie Mayo, daughter of Mrs. Rose Morris and Mr. Richard Mayo.

Both of the young ladies worked very hard in the contest. Together they raised $1370. They presented the Rescue Squad this money with smiles on their faces for being able to help.

Each of the young ladies wishes to "Thank" each person who gave them a vote.

Miss Vanceboro Rescue Squad Princess 1982 is eleven years old and is a student at Farm Life Elementary School. She is an active member of the Citizen's Club at the school. She attends Oak Grove Free Will Baptist Church and participates in its Sunday School activities.

Miss Vanceboro Rescue Squad Princess 1982 will represent the Vanceboro Squad at all of its social functions during this year.

The runner-up for Miss Vanceboro Rescue Squad Princess Contest 1982, Miss Tina Mayo, is in the fourth grade at Farm Life Elementary School and is ten years old. Miss Mayo's other activities include Cheerleader for Pee Wee Football Steelers and attending the Vanceboro Christian Church where she plays the piano for the church's youth program.

In case Miss Vanceboro Rescue Squad Princess 1982 cannot attend a social function to represent the Vanceboro Squad, the runner-up will be called on to fill in for her.
