Sharing Good News

By Dorothy Fillingame

The good news from the word of God for today comes from the 23rd Psalm and Rev. 22:17.

"The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want. He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters. He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake. Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over. Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life and I shall dwell in the House of the Lord forever." Is the Lord your shepherd? Has your soul been restored? If not, won't you come to him today and let him do the work for you?

Rev. 22:17 says this, "And the Spirit and the bride say Come. And let him that heareth say, Come. And let him that is athirst come. And whosoever will, let him take the water of life freely."

Tabernacle Holiness Church News

By Reba Mitchell

Among the path of life this week, my thoughts fall in line with the word, "Come". Sometimes the word "Come", may be a cry for help. Acts 16:9.

Sometimes it is an invitation. Jesus says, "Come" unto me all ye that labor and are heavy and I will give you rest". Matt. 11:28-30.

Is the load too heavy? Have you grown tired along the way? Has the journey been too long with no rest in sight? Jesus will help carry the load and give rest to your weary soul. Jesus is saying come.

Revival

On Sunday night, October 24th, Revival begins at Tabernacle Holiness and continues through the week with Rev. Russel Kinlaw speaking. Come and be with us.

Note

If you're feeling the "money crunch", here's an easy way to learn some money management skills. Your Craven County Extension Service would like to loan to commuters auto cassette tapes containing ten different messages on financial management

Yard And Bake Sale

It's just a reminder, that on October 23rd - Saturday morning - a yard and bake sale will be held at the home of Mrs. Ethel Nobles with proceeds going to Guy Lester Lilley, who has been hospitalized since May. He really needs our help.

and consumer education. You and the carpool may keep a tape for two weeks giving plenty of time to learn as you travel to and from work.
