Along the path way of life, we plant seed, but we cannot make them germinate. All seed do not come up at the same time. If we want results we do not plant and forget about them while going our way. If the season is dry the seed needs some moisture, if the ground is cold they need protection from the cold, such as hot caps or a covering. Last but not least, we have to wait and hope.

Things we say and deeds we do are seed in the life of others, and ours too. If we want to see the good seed spring forth in the life of others and ourself, we must live so the warmth of God's love will reach out to keep that seed warm and alive, the spirit of God gives it moisture so it will germinate. Watch and pray in hope knowing that with the faith of God all things are possible. Read I Cor. 3:6 - Matt. 19:26, 26:41, I Th. 5:17, 25, James 5:16.

Seed of Hope

*From little acorns
full oaks grow
From a smile, a friendship begins
An act of love creates
Hope
A word from the book of God
Creates a desire to know the Master
Knowing the master create a Christian*

Revival

Weekend Revival is now in progress with the Milkens. There is special singing each night.

We will be collecting girls needs for the Falcon Home, Harvest Train through the month of May. Panty hose, shampoo, brushes, deodorant and anything that girls can use.

Won't you please help? They are depending on the people of God.

In Memory

MARGARET W. DUDASIK

Mrs. Margaret Willis Dudasik, 61, died April 25th in Craven County Hospital. She was a resident of 2008 Cherry Point Road, New Bern.

Wiggs, both of New Bern; her step-mother, Mrs. Vivian Willis Purser of Vanceboro; two brothers: James Lee Willis of Erlander, Kentucky, and Douglas M. Willis of New Bern; a sister, Mrs. Audrey Willis Kotara of New Bern; and two grandchildren.

Sharing Good News

By DOROTHY FILLINGAME

The good news from the Word of God for this week comes from Galations 5:1, II Tim. 4:9-11 and I John 2:15-17.

You'll see as you read these scriptures, that Paul tells the Christians that once they have repented of their sins and accepted Jesus Christ as their savior, not to be entangled again with the yoke of bondage. Sin is the yoke of bondage. He tells us to stand fast in the liberty Christ has given us.

Paul gives us an example in II Tim. 4:9-11. He tells Timothy to come to him soon, for Demas had forsaken him, having loved this present world. Demas is mentioned by Paul two years earlier as one of his fellow laborers. Now he has been caught back up into bondage again. This is happening to a lot of Christian people today.

John warns us not to love the world, neither the things of the world. He tells us that if we love these things, then the love of the Father is not in us. He tells us that the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes and the pride of life is of the world and not of our Father. We should examine our lives daily and make sure we as Christians are not guilty of these three things. They cover a lot. These will draw us away from our Father.

The world and all it's pleasures or lust will all pass away one day, but all who does the will of God will abide forever.

SINGING

Quentin Mills and Deliverance, a Gospel Singing Group, will be at the West Vanceboro Church of God Sunday, May 1. The church will have regular morning services, then dinner will be served in the fellowship hall. Singing will be held during the afternoon.

Vanceboro Christian Church News

The Vanceboro Christian Church is planning "Family Night" this Sunday, May 1st, at 6:00 at which time all are asked to bring a supper of such as sandwiches, potato chips, pickles and all pick-up foods. Each family is asked to engage in a talent of their Choice. There will be a surprise by the Minister, Rev. Bennett. All are wondering if he is going to sing or play the guitar. He says for us to come see. He urges all the members to take part in this once-a-year event and that if one's family is small or on vacation, they can unite with another family or friend and present a talent. A good cook could read us a new menu. A good reader could read us a poem. Maybe there is an artist to paint us a picture. Remember Sunday night at 6:00. Come on out. Web says if you can't sing, just whistle.—Etheleene Butler.

Life's Lessons

asked Mrs. Harris what good Marco Polo would ever do me, and she said education gave you satisfaction; but I had rather be ignorant and have fun, than be educated and have satisfaction".

Ted Williams climbed to the top of the water tank soon after it was completed—maybe others climbed it that I didn't know about—but later years—I learned of two girls who were dared to climb it. "You are afraid to do it". Helen Duguid and Mildred Smith couldn't take the dare. They started climbing, afraid to look down, they reached the top, looked down and saw Mr. Homewood coming toward the tank. They expected him to blow his top; instead he said very calmly, "Girls, come down". When they were down he said gruffly, "Go to my room"—then, he blew his top. Children will be children.

There is an enormous amount of money spent on school buildings—tearing down old (good) buildings, doing away with schools that are

Fort Barnwell Bulletin

By MRS. B.H. MITCHELL

Mr. James Mitchell and Ms. Alice Mitchell were accompanied by Mrs. B.H. Mitchell to the Winston-Salem State University's Parents Day/Honors Day on Sunday.

The University had a well planned program which began with registration from 9:30-11:30 and Guided Tours of University from 10:30 - 11:30 a.m. Lunch from 11:30-1:30 p.m., Parents/Teacher Conferences 1:15 p.m.-2:15 p.m. And the Honors Day Program 2:30-4:00 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Each activity was well attended and the Parents Council had its beginning with Parents Volunteering to try to recruit more students to the University. Parents who pledged their support were Charter Members and will be sent certificates to show that they were Chartered Members.

The Honors Day Program is an annual program honoring students for excellence during their stay at the University.

Every honor student received a pin denoting honor but there were special awards for students with highest honors in special courses.

Plaques were presented to students with honor in major subjects by Mr. William Fulton, secretary of Winston Mutual Life Insurance Company.

Presentation of Awards for Class Honors was done by Miss Gail Eddie, Senior Merchandise Manager of J.C. Penny Company. (Miss Gail was a graduate of WSSU)

Presentation of Wachovia Bank and Trust Company Excellence in Teaching Award was done by Dr. Covington and Mr. Isaiah Tidwell. Mr. Tidwell is Senior Vice President of Wachovia Bank and Trust Co.

A check was presented to the teacher of the University for outstanding teaching and services at the University.

Before Awards were presented the University band and chorus rendered music. The guest speaker gave a very impressive speech.

The guest speaker was Mr. Don Forney, Community Affairs Director, WGHP-T.V.

The Craven County Democratic Convention will be in session on Saturday, April 30th at the Craven County Court House at 1:00 p.m. Delegates from each precinct are expected to attend.

The District No. 2 Union Meeting will begin on Friday night with the Youth Choirs of each church rendering music. Saturday will include a business session at 2:00 p.m. and a program on Saturday night. Edler J.O. Dawson will deliver the morning message and Elder Williams will deliver the afternoon message. The Union Meeting will convene at Pilgrim Chapel F.W.B. Church near New Bern.

The District President, Elder J.O. Dawson of Vanceboro will be in charge.

O for a Booke and a Shadie Nooke

Eyther in-a-doore or out;

With the greene leaves whispering over-hede

Or the streete cries all aboute

Where I maie reade all at my ease

Bothe of the newe and olde

For a jollie goode Booke whereon to looke,

Is better to me than Golde. (John Wilson)
