

Vanceboro Strawberry Festival Talent Show

This is your chance to show your talent and win a cash prize. The Vanceboro Junior Woman's Club is sponsoring a Talent Show May 14, at 7 p.m. in the Farm Life School Auditorium.

This is in connection with the First Annual Vanceboro Strawberry Festival being sponsored also by the Junior Woman's Club.

Nine big categories of talent are being planned. For individuals 15 years and under will have vocal, instrumental, and a pick it yourself category. For individuals 16 and up will be vocal, instrumental, and also a pick it yourself category. For groups with no age limit (how about that Grandpas and Grandmas — get your group together) will be vocal, instrumental, and a pick it yourself category. Plan now to be in this fun filled event.

Fill out entry blank below and give it to Barbara Forrest at Farm Life; Becky Hughes, at West Craven Middle; or Allison Morris at West Craven High School. You can also mail it to: Mrs. Sandra McCandless, Rt. 2, Box 179-C, Vanceboro, N.C. 28586. Hurry — time is short don't wait, this may be your first chance to show the world that you are a star.

Rotary Sponsors Auction Sale

The Vanceboro Rotary Club is sponsoring a big auction sale in the old J.B. Hellen Building beside Pat's Soda Shop on Saturday, May 14, in Connection with the First Annual Vanceboro Strawberry Festival. The Auction will start at 3:00. Everyone is eligible to bid on the items on display. Each person will register and get a Bidder's Number. This number will be used by auctioneer to recognize the bidders.

No item is too large or too small for the auction. There will be some one at the store every day next week to receive items and register bidders. The time for bringing your items will be from 4 p.m.

to 6 p.m. each day. Hurry and get your items on the floor.

Each seller agrees to give a donation of 30% of the sale price to the Boy Scout Troop 58 scout hut project.

The seller will have a right to place an opening bid on the item he is selling or may indicate the lowest price he is willing to sell the item. It will be fun for everyone.

Two top auctioneers in the area Mrs. Deloris Chandler and Mrs. Patti Anderson will be the auctioneers for this big time auction. Plan to be there — Plan to have an item for sale, you'll be glad you did.
