Si Seymour

Athletic Director Speaks to Rotary

Mr. Si Seymour, Athletic Director at Craven Community College, spoke recently to the Vanceboro Rotary Club. Mr. Seymour is a graduate of Camden High School and a graduate of East Carolina University. His experience has been at West Craven High School and during the past six and half years he started and guided the athletic program at CCC.

CCC is in Region 10 and considered an independent when scheduling program for the seasons. The strong sport at CCC is basketball. Mr. Seymour stated that he recruits strongly from Craven, Jones, and Pamlico High Schools. He mentioned outstanding West Craven High graduates that have been valuable to CCC such as Mike Emanuel, Jeff Jones, and currently Ceasar Harris.

Mr. Seymour stated he feels that the close personal relationship at the community college is primarily responsible for the successful athletic programs at CCC.

Vanceboro Methodist Youth Center Yard Sale News

Three films "Morning Star", "Happy Prince", and "Phillip and the White Colt" will be shown at the Vanceboro Youth Center beginning at 7:30 p.m. on Saturday night, May 7th.

All youth are invited.

The Vanceboro Methodist Women are having a yard sale, May 7, at Pat's Store at the Stop light in Vanceboro. The sale will be from 8:30 a.m. til 2:00 p.m. Proceeds go to the Church Building Fund.

He mentioned athletes Phil Faircloth, a New Bern High graduate, who will be taking a job in Computer Processing at Cherry Point; Alvin Fonville, West Craven High graduate, who will be working as a draftsman at the Newport News Shipyard; David Prescott, Pamlico High graduate, who will be going to ECU to major in Physical Education; Joe Holt, New Bern High graduate, who will be going to ECU to major in Physical Education; and Ronnie Boone, New Bern High graduate will enroll at UNC in Engineering as examples of the caliber of students that are part of the Athletic program at CCC.

He further stated he feels the future of CCC is great and the College will continue to be an asset to Craven County.
