"I Dare You" Winner

Bryant & Dickens Receive Award

Dolly Bryant of Vanceboro Triangle 4-H Club and Amy Dickens of Town & Country Saddle 4-H Club have been awarded the national "I Dare You" Leadership Award by the Craven County 4-H organization. The honor was presented by James Holton, Jr. at ceremonies held at the West New Bern Recreation Center November 30, 1983. They were selected for the Award in recognition of excellence in character and well balanced personal development as well as leadership potential.

In addition to the national recognition received, the Award provides the recipients with a copy of William H. Danforth's book, I Dare You, and a personalized certificate. Mr. Danforth wrote the book out of his own experience. He dedicated much of his time and philanthropy to youth work. In the book, he challenges the readers to aspire to their highest potential, to attain constructive lives of service and citizenship and to commit themselves to excellence.

The "I Dare You" Award is made available by the "I Dare You" Committee of the American Youth Foundation in cooperation with the County 4-H office. This is the 43rd consecutive year of the Award program. The American Youth Foundation, founded in 1924, is a non-sectarian, not-for-profit organization dedicated to providing programs for youth. The purpose of the Foundation is the discovery and enhancement of leadership skills and the promotion of balanced growth and development.
