Jones Back to Form

Bouncing back from their first defeat of the season, Jones Senior destroyed White Oak 93-77. Undeaten Jacksonville gave Jones their first defeat 67-66 in the opening round of the White Oak Invitational Christmas Tournament. Jones now 7-1 will return home for a Coastal Plain 2-A Conference match up with Topsail.

New Bern Loses To Jacksonville

After beating White Oak handily in the first game of the White Oak Invitational Christmas Tournament, New Bern found themselves stunned by a strong Jacksonville team. Jacksonville gave Jones Senior their first defeat in their first game of the tournament to get to the finals with New Bern. New Bern had three of their starters in foul trouble and Jacksonville took advantage of the Bears unaggressiveness to win 77-67. Jacksonville and New Bern will meet twice more this season in Mid-Eastern 4-A Conference play.

West Craven Splits Two In Tournament

Mattamuskeet kept its winning streak alive by defeating West Craven in the Washington Daily News Invitational Tournament. The Lakers came from 11 points down to take home a 69-67 victory stretching their winning streak to 31 in regular season games. In the consolation game, West Craven also blew a 7 point lead but were able to pull through on a free throw by top Eagle scorer, Reggie Goodman. Goodman finished the game with 22. Tim Cox, who had 25 points in the first game, led the Eagles in the Tournament with 35 total points. The Eagles are now 3-4 going into conference play. On January 6, 1984 the Eagles will host conference rival Havelock.
