West Craven Drops to 2-4

West Carteret, White Oak, and Havelock all spelled bad news for West Craven as the Eagles lost to all three teams in Coastal 3-A Conference. West Craven started conference with two wins, but now has lost four games in a row. Against the Patriots of West Carteret, West Craven never got things going and found themselves down 21-8 in the first quarter. Tim Cox scored 19 points in the Eagles' losing effort, while David Yancy led the Patriots also with 19 points.

West Craven traveled to White Oak looking to bounce back from their second conference loss. West Craven led at the half 39-16, but the Vikings would not lie down and die. White Oak cut the lead to 42-32 in the third quarter and with 14 seconds to go in the game had taken a 51-49 lead. The Eagles couldn't get their final shot to drop and both teams fought for the ball as time ran out.

The Eagles have had trouble with their second half intensity in all of their games and Havelock took advantage of this to take control of a close game; winning closely 61-55. Maurice Meyers gave the Eagles a 44-43 lead at the buzzer of the third quarter, but the Rams seemed to remember the final second shot that gave West Craven a victory earlier this season and ran away from the Eagles in the fourth quarter. Havelock is keeping itself in the race with a 3-3 record.

New Bern Moves Into Second Place

In the Mid-Eastern 4-A conference New Bern has moved into second place at 6-2 behind only undefeated Goldsboro. The Bears had two tough games, but was able to pull off two big victories over Hoggard and Wilmington Laney. The Bears couldn't put away Hoggard until the final seconds when Jeff Pearsall tapped in a Terrence West alley-oop pass. Derrick Johnson led New Bern with 27 points and Rodney Brown led Hoggard with 16.

When New Bern took the court against Laney, they were both tied at 5-2. New Bern, which lost to Laney earlier this season, was able to take revenge and take sole possession of second place. Derrick Johnson also led New Bern's scoring in this game with 31 points, while Mike Byrd led Laney with 16.

Chosen The Young Educator of the Year

Joyce Gehrig has been chosen by the New Bern Jaycees as the Craven County Young Educator of the Year at their annual recognition banquet.

Ms. Gehrig is employed by the New Bern-Craven County Board of Education and works at Farm Life Elementary School in Vanceboro as a first grade teacher.

Her work in her local church, in the New Bern theatre, and school activities made this award possible.

Wildcat Sports

The West Craven Wildcat basketball team finished their regular season with two fine records; the boys ended 10-2 and the girls 12-0.

The Wildcat boys finished the season with two games with Pamlico County. The boys won by scores of 57-42 and 51-31. Steve Harris led scoring for the Wildcats in both games with 19 and 16 points respectively.

The girls slaughtered Pamlico in their season final 60-7. West Craven held Pamlico to two points in the first half. Scoring honors went to Linda Gatlin and Chundra Crouell with 13 points each, while Earnice Hargett complimented her six points with 11 rebounds.
