ECU Students Receive Gravely Foundation Awards

Four students at East Carolina University have been awarded Gravely Foundation scholarships for the spring semester.

They are seniors Neil Tilghman of Cove City, Janet Marie Joyner of Rocky Mount and Lloyd Gardner of Williamston, and junior Joetta Maria Moore of High Point.

The awards are made from a gift presented to ECU by the Gravely Foundation of Rocky Mount and cover the cost of a semester's tuition at ECU.

Tilghman, who is majoring in political science with a minor concentration in history, is a graduate of West Craven High School and Mount Olive College.

During his studies at ECU, he has participated in the political science honors program and is a member of Pi Sigma Alpha honor society. Upon graduation, Tilghman plans to study law. He is the son of W.C. Tilghman of Cove City.

Cast Selected For "Lock, Stock And Lipstick"

The West Craven Drama Department, under the direction of Mrs. Melba D. Hargett, held auditions for the play, Lock, Stock and Lipstick on February 7-8. The students selected to act in the play are Michael Hodges, Danny Wall, Cathy Manning, Lisa Wetherington, Al Morris, Andy Caprara, Ingrid Hargett, Tammy Bryant, Jo-Elle Brown, Valarie Bishop and Lora Coleman. The assistant director is Billie Burney. The stage manager is Chris Haithcock and Angie Craven is house manager.

This play will be presented at West Craven High School on April 6, 1984, at 8:00 p.m. This is the first time in the school's history that a play will be given at West Craven.

Lock, Stock, and Lipstick is a three act comedy written by John Henderson. The play takes place in the Guidance office at Pembroke High School. It presents high school student as they really are, with their never-ending stream of problems. Any resemblance to actual counselors, janitors, pupils, parents, teachers or principals is an unintentional coincidence.
