Scout—A— Rama Held

Gateway - Scout—A—Rama, Troop 58.

It was a windy day outside Twin Rivers Mall as the Neuse Basin District went about setting up displays and working projects for the annual District Scout—A—Rama. Over 150 Cub, Webelos, and Boy Scouts were on hand to show the story of Scouting. Troops and packs were given trophies for their effort in the show.

Some troops displayed towers, monkey bridges, gateways, meal preparation, knot tying, tent pitching, utensil and food storage demonstrations.

Troop 58 of Vanceboro, with a select group of scouts, brought home the "Gold" first place trophy for having the best display. Scouts participating from Troop 58 were Doug Lee, Keith Morris, Jerry Morris, Stacey Patterson, Charlie Lee, Willard Crain, Stacey Meadows, Brynn Thomas, and John Haar. Richard Cannon, Scoutmaster, and Michael Hodges, Assistant Scoutmaster, were on hand to give assistance to the troop.

Other troops attending were Troop 97, sponsored by Beech Grove Methodist Charge; Troop 299 sponsored by New Bern's Lion Club; Troop 132 sponsored by Garber Methodist Church; Troop 167 sponsored by Neuse Forest Presbyterian Church; Troop 11 sponsored by Minnesott Lion's Club and Troop 13 sponsored by Centenary Methodist Church.

Packs present for the scout show were Pack 13, Centenary Methodist Church; Pack 67, Neuse Forest Presbyterian Church; Pack 132, Garber Methodist Church; Pack 427, Bryan Chapel AME Zion, Cove city; Pack 231, West New Bern Presbyterian Church; Pack 641 Broad Creek Christian Church; and Trinity Methodist Church.

The trophy for best pack display was awarded to pack 427. Ticket sales trophy winner for the pack went to Pack 427 with over 250 tickets
