Vanceboro Craven County Public Library Children's Story Hour To Celebrate National Library Week

In celebration of National Library Week (April 8-14) there will be a balloon launching at the Vanceboro-Craven County Public Library on Wednesday, April 4 at 4:00 There will be three large helium balloons launched from the library that will carry a message. All children preschool-sixth grades are invited to attend the event.

Afterwards, the Story Hour boys and girls will go inside of the library to see the six minute movie, "Whistle for Willie." It is an animated version of the children's book of the same title by Ezra Jack Keats. The movie is about "a little boy named Peter who tries very hard to whistle so he can call his dog. After a great deal of effort he succeeds."

The other movie to be seen will be "Swimmy." It is a fable about a small fish who is different from his brothers who outwits the great tunas so that all the small fish can stop hiding."

In addition to the films there will be stories. Also, Mary Ann Delamar will talk about some of the books available to check

Rescue Squad Training Conducted By Dr. Joyner

By DANNY BARROW Squad Reporter

Dr. Joyner is one of the staff doctors at Craven Obstetrics and Gynecology, P.A. of New Bern. Dr. Joyner spoke about obstetric emergencies and pediatric care. Emergency Medical Technicians being trained to handle an obstetric emergency, the latest and safest techniques were discussed. Dr. Joyner conducted a very thorough and complete discussion. It was a very fine and excellent presentation. The training was very helpful and additional knowledge to handle an obstetric emergency was gained.

Training is scheduled on a monthly basis for the Rescue Squad on any topic that would be very beneficial. All training is scheduled by the Squad's Captain, Terry Kite. Terry is doing an excellent job of seeing that the squad is receiving all necessary and updated training, which makes it possible for the Vanceboro Rescue Squad to better serve
