MOTHER-DAUGHTER BANQUET

The Christian Education Department of the Vanceboro Pentecostal Holiness Church sponsored the Annual Mother-Daughter Banquet Thursday night, May 3, 1984.

C.E. Director Harold Drake gave the welcome and expressed his appreciation to everyone attending.

Rev. James Norton, pastor, blessed the food. Everyone enjoyed a delicious meal consisting of turkey, dressing, giblet gravy, cranberry sauce, string beans, mashed potatoes, rolls, congealed strawberry dessert, cake squares, and tea.

The food was prepared by the Woman's Auxiliary, served by the men and two young boys - Gregg Fulcher and Patrick Troutner.

Sister Pauline Waters led the games—the balloons bursting challenge between mother and daughter and dropping clothes pins into a small mouth jug.

Mrs. Alma Drake, Mistress of ceremonies, led the congregation in singing "Mother Loves Me", a song she composed the year her mother died. Sister Peggy Evans accompanied her on the piano.

Sister Ruth Morris was guest speaker and gave the devotion. Her text was taken from Proverbs 31:10-31. She gave an interesting sermon on, "The Love of A Mother."

Sister Ruth Wiggins, Sister Pauline Waters, and Sister Alma Drake sang, "If I could Hear My Mother Pray Again."

The door prize was won by Rhonda Fulcher; prizes were given to the oldest mother, Sister Augusta Wilson; youngest mother, Sister Wanda D. Toler; youngest grandmother, Sister Alma Drake.

The banquet was held in the Dave Fulcher Fellowship Halls. Tables were decorated with white covering, with white bud vases with yellow roses, green lighted candles and green ivy. The center table was decorated with a yellow and orange floral arrangement, green lighted candles, two white doves and ivy.

A yellow blanket edged with green crepe paper held the theme "A Mother's Love Is Next To God's Love."

Sister Vila Norton gave the invocation.

We the C.E. Board wish everyone a Happy Mother's Day.
