

Jordan Elected

Cheryl Jordan

Lorraine Jordan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Royce Jordan, who now resides in Garner, North Carolina and teaches Drivers Education at Garner

Senior High School has been very successful in training her students in Drivers Education Rodeo Competition.

While working in Chowan County, she coached a second place winner in the North Carolina State Drivers Education finals. This spring, two of her students took first and second place in the area North Carolina Driver and Traffic Safety Organization's Drivers Education Rodeo. One of these students placed third in the State Amvets finals and the other took fourth place in the NCDTSEA State finals at Charlotte, North Carolina.

At the annual Drivers Education Training Association meeting, held after the Rodeo, Miss Jordan was elected vice-president of the State Association for the 1984-85 year. She will be elevated to the presidency for the 1985-86 year. Her duties for the coming year will include heading the State Rodeo in 1985.
