School Beautification Awards Presented

Schools that won state and district honors in the annual School Beautification Program were honored at an awards ceremony in Raleigh May 30 at the Highway Building Auditorium.

On hand to accept first place honors from their schools were principals Fred Ingold of Benton Heights Elementary School in Monroe, Dwight Jackson of North Davie Junior High in Mocksville, and James E.G. Sills of Charles E. Jordan Senior High in Durham.

Runner-up state winners and their principals are Belvoir

Elementary School in Greenville, Patsy S. James; West Craven Middle School in New Bern, W.B. Rivenbark; and Lee Senior High in Sanford, George Seagraves.

The awards were presented by former State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. Charles Carroll.

Over 200 schools from throughout the state submitted scrapbooks in the competition which is sponsored by the State Department of Public Instruction in cooperation with Keep North Carolina Beautiful Inc.

Craven Community College Receives Grant

Craven Community College has been awarded a grant in the amount of $20,000 from the Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation, Inc. for the procurement and production of quality programming for its public radio station WTEB which went on the air Monday, June 4, at 6 a.m. and is located at 89.5 fm on the radio dial.

The Z. Smith Reynolds Foundation was established in 1936 as a memorial to the youngest son of the founder of R.J. Reynolds Tobacco Company. In that year the brother and two sisters of Z. Smith Reynolds provided that their inheritance from his estate would go to the establishment of a trust for the benefit of the people of North Carolina. One of the initial trustees of the Foundation was Z. Smith Reynolds' uncle, William Neal Reynolds, who at his death in 1951 created a trust which now provides the major portion of the Foundation's annual income.

The Foundation has made 1,692 grants totaling more than $116,000,000 to more than 850 recipients in all of North Carolina's 100 counties. Major attention has been given
