NOTICE TO ALL GRAIN FARMERS—According to Jim Taylor, District Director, Federal Crop Insurance Corporation, if you anticipate a loss on any grain crop please notify your local agent as soon as possible so a pre-harvest inspection can be made. This inspection will help verify any claim you might have.

Nurse PAC Endorses Thomas
The Nurse PAC announced September 6 that they were endorsing Joseph E. Thomas in the state legislative race for Senator of the third district in the November general election.

Improvements are scheduled for improvement of NC 58 and SR 1182 on Atlantic Beach. All necessary approvals have been received by the N.C. Department of Transportation and work will begin in the very near future.

Tourism Development Authority Meeting

The Craven County Tourism Development Authority will meet at 12:00 noon on

Ms. Cora Lewis celebrates her birthday by inviting all of her children to the fellowship hall at the Vanceboro United Methodist Church. She stated that the first child she had in her home to care for was Junior Wilson, son of Ms. Betsy Ann Wilson and the late Edward Earl Wilson and her second one was Jeff Gaskins, son of William Henry Gaskins and Barbara Lynn Gaskins.

Wednesday, October 3, 1984, in the Trent Room at the Holiday Inn in New Bern.

The purpose of the meeting is for further study and development of the by-laws and any necessary business of the Authority.
