

FORT BARNWELL BULLETIN

BY MRS. B.H. MITCHELL

The pastor and members of St. Edwards F.W.B. Church would like to invite all members and friends to share the Women's Day services on the first Sunday in October 7.

Eldress Janie Harris will be the guest speaker. Elder William Waters is pastor.

Rev. Mrs. Daisy Wood of Washington D.C. was the recent guest of her sister Mrs. Dolly Crowell of Ft. Barnwell. She spent time visiting other relatives and friends while in the Community. She made special visits to see the sick and to pray with them for consolation. She believes in administering to the sick wherever she sees the need and feels the care of all human beings.

Rev. Wood also likes the country and open air so she visited a grape farm and picked to her satisfaction in the lovely autumn weather.

Mrs. Eva Hawkins and family were saddened by the loss of a sister, Mrs. Rachel T. Lewis, of Portsmouth, VA. The sad occasion brought many family members together. Mrs. Hawkins' children stopped to visit a short while with her after the funeral. Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Hawkins family of Wyndanch N.Y., Mrs. Nancy Paul of Deer Park, N.Y., Mrs. Lula Sutton and son of Brooklyn, N.Y., Mrs. and Mrs. Willie Hawkins of Kinston, Mr. Rufus Hawkins, Jr., and Mrs. Byrtle Mitchell of Ft. Barnwell were among the others friends who stopped in. Mr. John Z. Smith also accompanied the family to the funeral in Wilson, N.C.

The Autumn weather has worked in the local farmers favor in spite of hurricane Diana's brush in the Ft. Barnwell area. They seem to be harvesting all crops in record time.

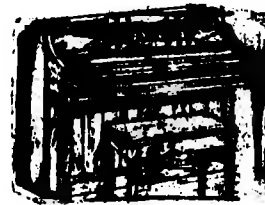

Nursing

Commenting on the excellent scores, State President Robert W. Scott said, "We are very proud of our nursing students and their exemplary record of achievement as reflected by the results of the State Board of Examinations. The nursing field is changing constantly and nurses today must keep abreast or find themselves unable to work in a modern setting. The Department of Community Colleges has an on-going commitment to help nursing students across the state obtain the necessary up-to-date skills for today's expanding and complex health care system."

The community college system produces 95% of the two year associate degree nurses trained in North Carolina and all of the licensed practical nurses (LPNs) in the State.
