

50th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Glen G. Franks were honored Sunday, October 28, 1984 to celebrate their 50th Wedding Anniversary with a reception given by their daughter and son-in-law Lucille and Melvin Adams and Katherine and Stan Pinkos.

The entrance to the building was a curved walk with Hurricane globes on posts filled with yellow roses, greenery and tied with white bows.

All the tables were covered with white cloths with lace and Organzive. The sides and corners were draped with tied white bows with streamers. The ends of the streamers were tied in knots with a gold wedding ring, one for each of the couple.

The background was made of many ferns. The center fern holding a big white bow, a large white dove with streamers from the dove through several of the ferns.

Rev. Robert Worthington called the attention of those present for a short program. Rev. Richard Hill had Prayer, comments and read a poem entitled "The Art of Marriage". Rev. Robert Worthington read scriptures from the Bible, had comments and read a poem especially written for the couple by Reba Mitchell entitled "Love That Lingers On". Rev. Stan Pinkos read and presented to the couple congratulations from Presi-

Our Pastor Never Stops

Occasionally someone will say, "Our pastor never stops to visit in our home." If the pastor never stops at your home, you probably should thank God. It means death has not struck, that no serious illness has laid you low, or that the surgeon's knife had not been necessary, or that you have had no serious family problem or that you are not a spiritually delinquent member. As a rule, your pastor does not have time for "Social calls". It is not that he would not enjoy doing so, it is simply a matter of priorities ... putting first things first. Your pastor does not have time to do everything he would like to do. However, you may be sure of this: your pastor is willing to come to the hospital or your home, the jail, the street corner, or anywhere at any hour of the day or night when he is needed. Call him if you need him. Otherwise, he will not know of your need until it is too late. For the moment, thank God you have not needed him. One day you will need him and he will be there when you call. Now he is visiting someone else who does need him.

Thank You

The simple words "Thank you" are greatly inadequate to express our thanks to all of you who were so very nice to us in celebration of our Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary. Your love, thoughtfulness and all deeds of kindness will always be remembered and deeply appreciated. Our wish is God's richest blessings on each of you.

We love you,
Glen and Mattie D. Franks

Card of Thanks

The children of Mrs. Emma Gaskins and the wife of the Late Freeman H. Gaskins, Jr. wishes to thank all of you who called, sent flowers and cards, prepared food for us in our time of sorrow, also your prayers, and kind words. May God bless each and every one of you.

Words of Thanks

Reverend M. Johnson, deacon, Thadeus Lovick, Women's Auxiliary Board, members and friends of St. James Disciple Church, I wish to express my sincere appreciation for the communion you gave at my home. On March 11, 1984, I had a stroke. I did not become conscious until one day later, when I realized that I was in the Pitt Memorial Hospital, Greenville, North Carolina. In answer to your prayers, my health is gradually improving. Dr. Andrew Best and his nurse have given me the best of medical care. Thank you Jesus for giving me strength to attend church this morning.

In addition to your prayers, neighbors both black and white have visited me and offered their services and prayers. One in particular, a former student, Reverend Alfender Johnson, who gave a heartfelt prayer which made me feel very good.
