

Fort Barnwell Bulletin

By MRS. B.H. MITCHELL

The fall quarterly meeting services of the Piney Grove F.W.B. Church of Grifton will be observed on Saturday night and Sunday.

Communion Services will be observed on Saturday night and the Sunday morning message will be delivered by Elder E. L. Garner. The Piney Grove Choir will render the music. Everyone is invited to attend. Elder Garner is pastor.

ANNOUNCEMENT

Please be advised that St. John A.M.E. Zion Church is giving recognition to the past and present "Deaconesses" of the church by way of Plaques. All interested families are welcome to purchase the name engraven on the plaque for a contribution of $25.00 or more. Proceeds will be for the Building funds. For further information, contact Mr. Handy Mitchell-527-1893.

On Saturday, November 10, 1984, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mitchell celebrated their 33rd year of marriage with a barbecue/chicken dinner at King's Restaurant in Kinston,

N.C.

The occasion brought together four generations which included Mrs. Cora Cox, Mrs. Catherine Mitchell's mother; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Ray Cox, the son and daughter-in-law of the couple, also their grandsons, Parinda and Antwan Cox. Richard Mitchell, a brother from Pomfret, Maryland, who was making a surprise visit was invited to share the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell received many congratulations and they promised to really do it up when 50 years roll around. An enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Richard Mitchell was the week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Mitchell. While in the community he attended the appreciation service for Rev. Claude Davis, pastor of St. John's A.M.E. Zion Church. He visited his aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Dancy, also Mr. and Mrs. George Mitchell of Kinston, N.C., Mrs. Dolly Crowell, Mrs. Argirtha Mills and daughter

Wilhelmenia Dixon. Other friends visited were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Koonce, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Blount and Mrs. Katie Green of Kinston, N.C.
