Lady Eagles Bounce Up Short

The West Craven Lady Eagles staged a good come back. They were down 17-6 in the first quarter but came back to shorten the margin to 25-21 with the lady Trojans ahead by four at the half.

The clock became the key factor in the second half of this game, as it ticked down the Trojans widened its margin. This is what caused the Lady Eagles to come up short. Coach Gaye Hines said that the Lady Eagles showed a good sign of improvement.

The players that scored in double figures was lead by Linda Gatlin with 25 and Jarwarn Cox with 15 for the Eagles Kim Murrell with 23, and Denise Willie with 10 were the Trojans scoring in double figures.
