Announce a birthday or anniversary for yourself, mother, father, son, daughter, neighbor, or friend, for only $1.00 per announcement. Must turn announcement in to the Highlights at least 1 week before date.

Morehead Welcomes Baldies

"We're proud of every hair we don't have" say the 18,000 members of the Bald Headed Men of America Club who will polish their bald pates and make headway for the 14th. International BALD IS BEAUTIFUL Convention held in Morehead City, North Carolina. September 12, 13, 14th. when Chief Bald Head Judge, Ms. Shirley Clark, will help judges select the "Most Kissable Bald Head in the World" while ABC Television tapes the event for Good Morning America, on Saturday afternoon (Sept. 13th. 3 to 5:30) in the Bald Room of Mrs. Willis Restaurant, said BHMA Founder John T. Capps III.

From Key West to Kalamazoo (Home of Upjohn's minoxidil) and Las Vegas to Sweden bald men converge annually for: sharing "the bald experience," participate in a Bald as A Golf Ball Tournament on a Morehead area golf course, tell the latest bald jokes, celebrate a healthy self image, have a wholesome hair raising good time and flaunt what they don't have, Hair! Morehead City's mayor, Bud Dixon says, "Skin is in and if you've got more head and less hair, join the many who will be in Morehead City this weekend."

Head to head competition keeps the judges busy determining the Sexiest Bald Head, Best All Round, Smoothiest, the Most Kissable Bald Head and Look-a-likes with contestants gleaming support from the usual standing room only audience. Twenty-eight year old, Steven Fowler from Atlanta, Georgia, last years, Most Kissable winner said, "The judges all commented how soft, warm and snuggly my head was, it was just like kissing a baby." Making it a family affair his dad, John Fowler from Greensboro, N.C. put on a heads up performance by taking the Trapper John Look-A-Like ribbon.

Sixty per cent of all men can look forward to being bald or balding by the time they reach sixty years old," quipped Jack Moorhead of Bradenton, Fla. after he was declared a winner in one of the contest when he made the trip to North Carolina to see if BHMA was for real and located in Morehead City! Mark Adams of Tega Cay, S.C. is looking forward to his fourth convention and said, "The contest are fun for all, but the winner will not win by a hair, but it could be a close shave!"

The Carteret Plan Giving Foundation, benefactor of community projects, will receive a donation from any profits generated from the 1986 BHMA's Bald Is Beautiful Convention. For additional information about Bald Headed Men of America write: Bald is Beautiful, Morehead Plaza-East Mall, Morehead City, N.C. 28557-1466 or call: (919) 726-1855.

Purpose of the Bald Headed Men of America is to eliminate the vanity associated with the loss of one's hair and to instill pride and dignity in being bald headed. BHMA's founder says, "It is more important what is in the head, than what is on top of or not! Members of the organization do not have room for drugs, plugs, or rugs, just a wash cloth to polish the shine! During the year BHMA and some members respond by helping children and others undergoing medical treatments to understand and cope with hair loss which hopefully in their case is only a temporary state of baldness in addition to those who write or call for help in handling male pattern baldness which averages 3,000 inquiries a year.
