

CAMPUS NOTES

DEAR READERS:

For the first time in several years I am again conducting a column in The Belles. Let me hear about your love troubles!

MISS N. JOY LOVE.

DEAR MISS LOVE:

This summer I went with a life-guard at the beach. He swore he loved me, told me such sweet things, and promised to write. I have yet to hear from him.

WHAT TO DO.

DEAR WHAT TO DO:

Write and ask him to drop you a line—part of the one you dropped him this summer.

DEAR N. JOY:

I went with a boy and everything was fine until we went swimming. I wore my cute Saint Mary's suit and haven't seen him since.

MISERABLE.

DEAR MISERABLE:

There is only one kind of man who could love you in one of those suits, and he is blind!

MISS LOVE:

A man broke my heart and I am disillusioned about them all.

LOLLIPOP.

DEAR LOLLIPOP:

Keep trying. Maybe you can find another sucker.

MISS LOVE.

P.S.—Every dog has her day.

INQUIRING REPORTER

(Continued from page 1)

drag them in" tactics . . . and who is your reporter to argue . . . for the "Beeb" is one of the chosen few—

Sez Willcox, with a languid expression, "What are dates to me? huh . . . just try me and see."

Jean ("Chief Marshal") Fulton's only bit of consolation comes in the form of three little words, "Sit and Hope."

Glamour Pan Bond got an earnest expression on her face and came through with, "Well, you can get a lot of work done in that time, but you usually don't."

Would that I could give you just one or two more gems of opinion, but the only things left to interview were the two coke bottles, and they both had dates.

For the sake of posterity though, I have always wanted to assert myself on the injustice of choosing pages alphabetically. Our infirmary would be obsolete if we had our Sunday afternoon office boys picked according to size and power of grip, for who, lacking the strength of an Amazon, the brute force of an ape, and the heartlessness of Judas, could withstand the terrifying eagerness with which they are met on the threshold of Dateless Dames' Dorm?

To those residents of Holt who feel trod upon by this description of their Sabbath afternoon actions, I add:

Any similarity to persons living or dead (the more likely of the two) is certainly a feather in my cap.

The Political Science Club had its second meeting Sunday, September 28. Mr. Guess took charge of a discussion on current affairs. The Russian campaign was the chief topic of conversation.

* * *

On Thursday, September 25 Miss Nell Battle Lewis spoke to the students in assembly on current events.

* * *

All girls interested in joining the Camera Club please come to its first meeting tonight at 6:00 in Mr. Moore's classroom. The members will learn to develop and enlarge their own pictures.

* * *

Mr. Guess spoke in assembly Tuesday, September 30, on some of the more pressing problems of nation-wide importance with which the United States is now confronted. He emphasized especially the stand that our Government will take in regard to the Neutrality Act. Already, as is known, several amendments, such as the Lend-Lease Bill, have been made to this act, and others concerning convoys and arming of merchant ships will probably be made in the near future. Mr. Guess also spoke of the immediate seriousness of inflation.

* * *

Friday, October 3, will be moving day. All boarding students who wish to make changes will meet in Mr. Guess' classroom at 4:00 Friday afternoon. You must work out in advance the changes you wish to make.

* * *

The Letter Club has planned an overnight camping trip this Saturday. Bettie Vann, who graduated from Saint Mary's last year, has offered her camp in Franklinton, North Carolina, to the "back-to-nature" girls. Mrs. Guess and Miss Harvey will act as chaperons for the group.

* * *

Kay Roper, chairman of the Student Regulation Training Classes is glad to report that only two girls among the boarding students failed to pass the examination. Eleven Day Students out of forty-two did not pass the test. Recognition must be given to those seniors who did such a good job of teaching the new students. They were Allie Bell, Lib Adkins, Carolyn Cauble, Minkie Clarke, Anne Dunn, Kay Roper, Betty Willcox, Bunny Stribling, Bebe Castleman, and Jonny Norman.

* * *

The Glee Club has recently been organized. Besides several of last year's old members, twenty-four new girls are in the club. They are Patty Ross, Julia Alfriend, Meredith Johnston, Ann Garnett, Laurie Lucas, Lillian Bellamy, Sally McKinley, Barbara Bruff, Catherine Bunn, Mary Dickey, Marie Hodges, Elizabeth Royall, Betty Bassett, Betty Britt, Anne Damtoft, Pat Pagen, Jane Sloan, Olivia Anne Smith, Peggy Beale, Jane Wideman, Bunny Stribling, Pat Coder, and Florence Ferguson.

Dora Winters has been in the infirmary for the past week with a severe case of poison oak.

* * *

It is interesting to know that nine of our Saint Mary's girls are taking organ this year. They are Daphne Richardson, Jean Fulton, Shirley Schellenberg, Minkie Clarke, Betty Bassett, Mary Ann Crook, Betty Lou Britt, Kay Roper, and Emily Cheshire.

* * *

Miss Davis has announced that the first production staged by the Dramatic Club will be Barrie's Dear Brutus.

* * *

Kathryn Norman was elected president of the Dramatic Club at its meeting on Friday, September 26. Other officers elected were Margaret Shackelford, vice-president; Mary Wright Holland, secretary; Mary Thomas, treasurer; and Lib Adkins, business manager.

* * *

Ruth Bond has recently been elected president of the Dance Club. The only other officer is Cora Lucas, secretary. The members of the club include Anna Fluck, Polly Lindsay, Neville Cumming, Margaret Bethune, Carolyn West, Jeannette Simpson, Sally McKinley, Jane Hurt, Betty Walters, Cora Lucas, Virginia McRae, Gene Neff, Vi Johnson, Ruth Bond, Betsy Casteen, Mildred Lee, Bunny Stribling, Peggy Beale, Alice Yount, Betty Willcox, Martha Battle, Marion Thomas, Ellis Barnard, Sara Thornton, Suzanne Schmidt, and Cecelia Dicks.

* * *

The Doctors' Daughters' Club had its first meeting in the infirmary on Friday, September 26. Vi Johnson was elected secretary to take the place of Katheryn Nelson, who did not return this year, and Sally Tucker was chosen treasurer in place of Grace Walker, who also did not return. Betty Suiter and Rosa McCauley are social secretaries.

The entire program of this club is one of service, for people in need of medical aid, as well as those in need of general relief. Olivia Anne Smith, the president says that the Doctors' Daughters will also do such things as rolling bandages and knitting for the Red Cross.

* * *

The library staff is trying to collect for binding two complete sets of the Belles and one of the Grapevine, for records and reference. There are two numbers that are missing from the files, and the librarians would be very grateful if anyone who has those numbers would let the library have them. They are as follows:

Grapevine: Nos. 2 and 16. (Only one volume issued.)

Belles: Vol. II, Nos. 2 and 16.
Vol. III, Nos 2 and 4.
Vol. IV, No. 10.

* * *

Miss Virginia Williamson, assistant librarian at Saint Mary's last year, now on a leave of absence, had planned to go to Columbia University to study in the

WHERE HAVE THEY GONE?

Last year's High School graduates have gone from Saint Mary's to Washington, Virginia, North and South Carolina. Here they are:

- Baker, Ann—Hollins.
- Boyle, Margaret Ann—University of South Carolina.
- Branson, Barnett Merriweather—King Smith Studio School, Washington, D. C.
- Fagg, India Dolores—Sweet Briar.
- Gibbon, Catherine—Holton-Arms College, Washington.
- Hampton, Henriette—Converse.
- Harris, Dorothy—Converse.
- Herty, Dorothea—University of Georgia, Athens, Ga.
- Hurley, Susanne Headen—Duke.
- Joyner, Sue Kitchin—National Cathedral School, Washington.
- Kight, Martha—Hollins.
- Love, Mary Elizabeth—Sweet Briar.
- Martin, Nancy Patton—Gunston Hall.
- Niederhauser, Nell Dexter—University of Alabama.
- O'Herron, Nancy—Hollins.
- Poisson, Gethyn Rugan—Hood College, Frederick, Md.
- Rodman, Marcia Blount—Hood.
- Tinsley, Rebekah—Randolph-Macon.
- Wooten, Sarah—Converse.

School of Library Service. However, she has accepted a position as librarian for the Johnston County Library, a project which has come about through the new state aid for libraries. Miss Williamson's headquarters are in Smithfield, North Carolina.

* * *

All Saint Mary's is glad to welcome Miss Tucker back from the hospital. She started work Monday.

* * *

The annual Youth Sunday in the Episcopal Church was observed by Saint Mary's at the eleven o'clock service on Sunday. Betty Willcox read the first lesson and Kathryn Norman, the second lesson. Sophia Redwood, Charlotte Mahan, and Miss Louise Jordan spoke on Youth and Forward-in-Service during sermon time.

* * *

The new Honor Council members have been selected: Margaret Shackelford and Sarah Tucker from the Junior class, Anne McRae from the Business class, Sarah Crowder from the Day Students, and Virginia Woodard from the Underclassmen. Last spring Allie Bell and Carolyn Cauble were chosen to represent the Senior class on the Honor Council.

* * *

The schedule for the Civic Music Concerts follows:

- November 24—Sergei Rachmaninoff.
- December 16—Lauritz Melchior and Lotte Lehmann.
- January 22—Gladys Swarthout.
- February 24—Nathan Milstein and Luboshutz and Nemenoff.
- March 12—Lawrence Tibbett.
- May 1—National Symphony Orchestra.

* * *

The Nominating Committee has nominated Betty Lou Britt, Anne Dickson, and Elizabeth Royall for the office of secretary to the Hall Council.