Miss Sutton, Beloved S. M. S. Teacher, Dies

Former Saint Mary's Teacher Dies Monday. Services in School Chapel By Bishop Penick, Mr. Kloman, and Mr. Wright

Juliet Biscoe Sutton, one of Saint Mary's favorite graduates, teachers, and secretaries, died Monday morning at her home on Park Drive. The funeral services were held Tuesday at four o'clock in Saint Mary's Chapel. The burial service took place at Oakwood Cemetery. Pall-bearers were, Paul Davis, Carl Hill, William Guess, Dr. L. E. Hinkle, Dr. W. B. Dewar, of Raleigh, and John Manning, Jr., of Chapel Hill. The Right Reverend Edwin Penick, the Reverend Felix Kloman, and the Reverend John Wright officiated.

Miss Sutton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Robert Sutton, of Pittsboro, N. C., attended Locust Hill Seminary in Pittsboro and Saint Mary's. Twenty years after her graduation from Saint Mary's, she returned to the school as a member of the faculty, in the year Dr. Bennett Smedes died. In those days Saint Mary's was beginning to grow and the boarders numbered eighty-four. Miss Sutton became the perfect hall teacher on Miss Harvey's present hall, third floor Smedes. She taught Spelling and "Friday Bible," as she fondly at the large she fondly at the large she was she fondly at the large she was the shear of the shear she was the shear s fondly referred to her class. She Spoke of the Saint Mary's girls as our Girls," and was always in favor of changing the rules and restrictions to suit the times. She always took sides with the students, oftentimes regarding faculty complaints, and was willing to help them in any and every way possible. She made many friends among the students, and old students were constantly returning and asking to see her.

When she began to help Mrs. Lee in the Business Department, she gave up her classes. Later when Mr. Cruikshank became Business Manager, she started secretarial work. She was postmistress and loved their loved to tease the girls about their letters from "Jim or Billy," seldom forgetting the correct name. It was these these small, dear things that made her one of the most beloved of Saint Mary's teachers. Two years ago at the age of seventy-nine and after many years of faithful work at Saint Mary's College, she retired and lived with her sister, Mrs. Archie Horton on Park Drive, where she remained until her death this she remained until her death this week.

Dickson, Dawson, and Dixon Head Student Government Next Year

Anne Dickson and Sarah Dawson share with Mary Ann Dixon the three most important offices in the school, President of the student body, Chairman of the hall council, and Vice-President of the student body, respectively. These girls have high Junior ratings and have al-ready held important offices this

Anne Dickson, whose home is at Virginia Beach, attended Saint Margaret's before she came to Saint Mary's. She served as Junior and Senior representative on the honor council and captain of the volleyball team there. Since she has been here, she has filled practically all the secretary or treasurer offices in the school, being Secretary of the hall council, Secretary-Treasurer of the Sigma Lambda Literary Society, Treasurer of the French Club, and Secretary-Treasurer of the Junior Class. She is a member of the Circle.

When interviewed on the sun porch and asked how she liked it here, Anne closed her eyes, smiled, and murmured, "I love it!" She was very tight-lipped about the whole situation, but finally she admitted that she had been called whole situation, but finally she admitted that she had been called "Bookworm Dickson," but said we dare not put that in The Belles. After much deliberation she at last said, "We certainly do want to start off. Sarah Dawson came to Saint Mary's from National Cathedral School in Washington where she was Secretary of the Missionary Board and Captain of the basketball team. In her Cramerton, N. C., high school she was assistant Editor of the newspaper. Here at Saint Mary's she is Vice-President of the Junior Class and belongs to the Letter Club, Hall Council, and French Club.

Sarah, also on the sun porch, indicated her ability for her office next year when she shouted amid the giggling of the girls, "Quiet, Miss Harvey is trying to take a nap!" Sarah beamed and said, "You see, I am starting in right away!"

On the serious side she confessed, "I am looking forward to next year, and I shall try to live up to the office to the best of my ability, God willing and all the school behind me."

Junior-Senior Dance Saturday, April 11

Juniors to Entertain Seniors in Colonial Garden. Freddy Johnson to Furnish Music

The Juniors will entertain the Seniors at their annual formal dance in a Colonial garden of flowers, pine trees, and Japanese lanterns on Saturday night from 8:30 to 11:55. Freddy Johnson and his orchestra will furnish the music.

The committees as announced by Jane Council, president of the Junior Class, are: orchestra, chairman, Mary Ann Dixon, Anne Dickson, and Harriet Whitner; invitations, chairman, Sarah Dawson, Mary Ann Cooper, and Mary Burns; decorations, chairman, Ann Garnett, Sally Sanborn, Betty Lou Britt, Mary Coons, Margie Shackleford, and Coons, Margie Shackleford, and Elsie Adams; refreshments, chair-man, Daphne Richardson, Jane Evans, and Sarah Tucker.

Mary Ann Dixon attended Needham Broughton High School in Raleigh where she was a Marshal, representative to the student government, and secretary to the Latin Club. Last year she went to Southern Seminary, Buena Vista, Virginia, where she was Business Manager of the Junior class and appeared in the May Court. Here at Saint Mary's she is Vice-President of the Y. P. S. L. and belongs to the Dramatic Club.

Seated in her room, she was very hesitant about answering questions and repeatedly protested that she was a "family girl and didn't know how to express herself on such an occasion." She did say, though, "I hope to work as well with my associate officers as Kay Roper has done this year, and I do look forward to making the new girls feel at home."
