

Day Students' Enrollment Increases

Many Take Active Part In Campus Life

Day students number 65 this year, an increase of 17 over last year. Although never at school the full twenty-four hours, they are taking active parts in school programs.

Agatha Chipley, who was the editor of the Handbook for this year, has been elected president of the E. A. P.'s, and Michelle Telfair is president of the Sigma Lambda's. Helena Williams is president of the Mu Athletic Society.

Six day students are members of the Glee Club. They are Marcia McMillin, Catherine McClamroch, Charlotte Anderson, Clarice Woolard, Jane Jeter, and Jane Clark Cheshire. Marcia is also a member of the choir.

Annette Fulton is an active member of the Raleigh Little Theatre and has two roles in the Macbeth production.

Students taking organ are Betty Baer, Jane Clark Cheshire, Lib Jones, Louise Gower, Ellen Senay, Jane Bowman, and Vee Yates, who is majoring in music.

HINTS ON HITS

SWEET:

People Will Say We're in Love: Our money's on Mr. Sinatra for this one, but Perry Como's recording is also good for those who dislike Frank. Oh What a Beautiful Morning is on the back. (Columbia)

Sunday, Monday, or Always: The Swooner and the Groaner vie for top honors on this platter. Just to keep things square they have If You Please (delovely!) on the back. We approve! (Columbia)

You'll Never Know: Dick Haymes and F. S. Recorded this. Dick has Wail for Me Mary on the back but we lean toward Frank's Close to You, recorded on Decca and Columbia, respectively.

All or Nothing at All: Sinatra and James combine for an excellent arrangement while Harry lets go with Flash! on the back. (Columbia)

I Heard You Cried Last Night: Dick Haymes doubles up two hits as he sings I Never Mention Your Name on the back. Harry James and Helen Forest work out a good arrangement too. (Decca and Columbia)

Paper Doll: Incidentally it was third on the Hit Parade last week. The only recording so far is by the Mill Brothers. I'll Be Around is on the back. (Decca)

SWING:

Pistol-Packin' Mama: Al Dexter's started a landslide with this disc which runs the gamut of popularity from the juke box to the Stork Club. (Okeh)

In My Arms: by Dick Haymes with that grand tune It Can't Be Wrong on the other side. (Decca)

Put Your Arms Around Me: Dick Haymes does well on this one. (Decca)

Boogie-Woogie: A T. D. master-piece; need we say more? (Victor)

CAMPUS NOTES

Siddell's Studio began making the pictures for the Stage Coach Monday. Class pictures will be made first, beginning with the freshman class. "Pinky" Butler, editor of the annual, asks all girls to co-operate fully with the planned schedule since 95 per cent of the annual pictures must be turned over to the printer by Christmas.

* * *

Rev. Mr. Moultrie Moore, diocese chairman of the Youth Commission, will conduct services in Saint Mary's Chapel Sunday morning. Rev. Mr. I. Harding Hughes will be in Burlington, N. C.

* * *

Margaret Groover, Wilmington, student at Saint Mary's last year, spent the week-end with Betty Edwards.

* * *

The Political Science Club met last Sunday night to elect new officers. They are Mary Pierce Johnson, president; Marilyn Mitchell, vice-president, and Mary Virginia Freeman, secretary and treasurer. The club also decided to meet monthly on Sunday nights instead of bi-monthly.

* * *

Mary Ann Dixon, '43, sponsored the launching of the USS Dixon, named for her grandfather, in Baltimore on September 25. Later she attended the reception and banquet for official guests at the Belvedere Hotel.

* * *

Gwyn Hughes and Nancy Urner spent last week-end at Gwyn's home in Tabor City, N. C. Gwyn's brother is home on furlough being sent overseas.

* * *

Friday night, October 15, the Raleigh Merchants Bureau will entertain the new college students at the City Auditorium. Boys from State; girls from Meredith, Peace, and Saint Mary's will attend.

* * *

At a Canterbury Club Council meeting, Anne Hirst was elected vice-president of the club and Sister Smith treasurer. Rebecca Drane and Caroline Long were elected president and secretary, respectively, last spring.

* * *

Patsy Rodgers has been elected president of the Glee Club at Saint Mary's for the coming year.

* * *

Mrs. Ernest Cruikshank visited her daughter, Mrs. Robert Foss, in Southern Pines last week.

* * *

Bishop Edwin A. Penick left October 2 to attend the General Convention in Cleveland, Ohio. Mrs. Penick is visiting her mother in South Carolina while the Bishop is away.

Katherine Legg, Betty Clark, Fannie Cooper, Shirley Goode, Henrietta Ragland, Jane Clark Cheshire, Cornelia Knott, Eleanor Thomas, Jane Sloan, and Kacie Taliaferro attended dances at Chapel Hill last week-end. Maria Legg, Caroline Long, and Louise Gower attended dances at Duke.

* * *

Clara Leigh Kemper and Brent Woodson are taking courses at State College this year. Clara Leigh is taking advanced chemistry, and Brent, calculus.

* * *

Thirteen teachers at Saint Mary's are taking part at the USO Hostess Service. They are Misses Ruth Haig, Margaret Duckett, Sally Digges, Geraldine Cate, Genevieve Senecal, Frances Vann, Ruth Scott, Adelaide Winslow, Peggy Hopkins, and Mesdames William Guess, Harlan Brown, Walter Simpson, and Wilson Holwell.

* * *

C. A. P. Moore spoke in assembly Thursday on current events and the sale of war stamps.

* * *

Russell Broughton conducted a musical program in assembly Tuesday morning.

* * *

The sextet will sing Sunday at the Y. M. C. A. The girls in the sextet this year are: first sopranos, Elise Ferguson and Sallie Dixon; seconds, Mary Fox Clarke and Maria Legg; and altos, Lib Shaw and Gwyn Hughes.

* * *

Miss Ruth Scott conducted a music appreciation program at the Service Men's Wives Club at the Y. M. C. A. last Thursday night.

* * *

Merritte MacGregor, who attended Saint Mary's last year, spent last week-end with Betsy Blount. Merritte is working in the British Supply Mission in Washington, D. C.

* * *

Amy Warner has been in the infirmary for the past week with flu.

* * *

Betty Barnes spent the week-end of the 25th at her home in Charlottesville, Va. She saw her brother, Ensign Bennett Barnes, who was home on leave at the time.

* * *

Misses Ruth Woltz, Flossie Withers and Frances Warren, all of '39, spent last Thursday at Saint Mary's.

* * *

Helen Fleenor and Carrie Maie Wade attended the Penn State-Carolina football game in Chapel Hill last Saturday with Carrie Maie's father, Mr. Jake Wade, sports editor of the Charlotte Observer.

INQUIRING REPORTER

We can't be nurses' aides or welders, but we certainly can help our country by our contributions to the Third War Loan or to the United War Fund. Here's what several girls replied when they were asked, "Do you think girls should give up an important event or some trips downtown in order to be able to give to some worthy organization?"

Ann Stephens: "Frankly, I think students should give up at least one afternoon a week, and they should average up the money they would spend and give that money to the war effort."

Maria Legg: "That's a grand idea. It's the least we can do."

"Spot" Baskerville: "Our donations will mean more to others than movies will mean to us."

Betty Dunn: "A Saint Mary's girl should do all she can."

Carolyn Holland: "It's a grand idea, and it's not asking too much of any student."

Lena Grantham: "Others are doing so much for the war effort. We should sacrifice something."

First Girl-Break of The Year Successful

Giggles and squeals echoed from the halls. "Is my dress all right?" "Where is my new lipstick?" The pages were met at the top of the stairs. "Is it my date?" "Has Johnnie come?" Everyone was in a turmoil. It was the first girl-break of the year. And a honey.

Finally all the boys came and the music poured from the gym. The navy had the situation well in hand, and both the army and marines were well represented. Girls flashed here and there, with bright sweaters, cheery smiles, and excited whispers. But for once it was the boys who had to act charming and attractive in order to get a break. The dance was in progress.

Money from these dances goes for war bonds, and they are sponsored by the dance marshals. The next one is scheduled in October after the new marshals have been elected.

MUS MUSCULUS

the teachers have really had a chance to see themselves as others see them what with the skit in assembly and the sigma mu party carol talbots letter musta been interesting fannie lee brooke tried to get me to imitate CAPM but flossie didnt want me to get a crew cut flossie and i had fun at mary pierce johnsons party if you want to break the habit of being late to meals ask miss duckett how i was in the library the other day to see why it fascinated all the seniors then i saw margaret derosset sitting on the floor dusting books flossie and i yelled our heads off at the sigma practice last week end i tried to get dee nuchols and barnie white to teach me to cheerlead too but they soon gave up flossies mother is coming to visit us next week and flossie has been polishing up my manners all day think ill take a little trip i bet patty weaver that i could read an unabridged copy of the iliad before she did o weary day

BUY LOTS OF WAR STAMPS!