

HINTS ON HITS

Long Ago and Far Away
Is dreamy, so they say,
And now that dream is sung in duet.

Helen Forest and Dick Haymes
On fame they stake their claims (They reached their aims!)

Chills run up and down your spine
Your blood seems turned to wine (That's trite, exaggerated, but it's rhyme.)

If you'll listen for a bit I know that all you'll long for is this hit!

Other side:

Look for the Silver Lining
Is good advice for me and for you And here's some more of the same for you all
"And so the right thing to do is make" them play for you
Look for the Silver Lining!
By Helen Forest and Dick Haymes, and Decca.

Why are our feet dancing?
(Imagine dancing!)
It might could be That Suddenly It's Spring.

Why do we keep crying,
Shouting, sighing?
It's all for glee
And Suddenly It's Spring.

By second chorus
(Trombone calling)
That "Something" tells me
You'll be falling!

Other side:

Somehow I'm sure I've found a Sure Thing in it Something within tells me 'twill win (Somehow my conscience hurts, hurts me quite a bit) Pardon my lyrics, Ira Gershwin
Yours will win acclaim.
No matter what other song comes up
'Tis thumbs up—all same!

By Glen Gray and Decca.

We're waiting for recordings of So Little Time, Amour, Amour, and Girl of the Moment.

THE WAY THAT LOVERS USE

The way that lovers use is this:
They bow, catch hands, with never a word,
And their lips meet, and they do kiss,
—So I have heard.

They queerly find some healing so,
And strange attainment in the touch;
There is a secret lovers know,
—I have read as much.

And theirs no longer joy nor smart,
Changing or ending, night or day;
But mouth to mouth, and heart on heart,
—So lovers say.

RUPERT BROOKE.

PEALS

It seems that in the course of being educated we have completely ignored the universe around us. The outcome of the Time tests at Saint Mary's really proves that we are out of this world.

The Junior-Senior decorations were a big success. Some people felt it was as near as they would ever get to celestial glory.

Investigation reveals that the sole interest of the feeble-minded is to get out of the institutions to which they are confined. We note with alarm the growth of a similar tendency at S. M. S.

We have always heard that things rise to a feverish crescendo during the last week of school. We should like to point out to the faculty that we're all ready 'way ahead of schedule.

Teaching is really pretty tough work after all. Mr. Moore had to sit and listen to his class sing, "Fools Rush In," one rainy Saturday morning. The effect was ghastly.

A member of the student body has requested that an appeal be placed in this column that absolute quiet be maintained in the library at all times. It seems the voices of the faculty are just as audible as those of students.

Student opinion recently has seen a shift toward a new theme song, but so far it is only rumor that girls croon to their dates in the parlor, "Shoo, shoo, Baby, beat me 2 to the bar."

SWIMMING MEET

son; Mu's: E. R. Thomas, Gregory, Goerch, Talbot. Third novelty race, won by Mu's; Sigma's: Ligon, nard, Morris, Young. Diving, won by Mu's; Nuchols, M. Smith, Woodson; Mu's: Lewis Clarke, Leitner, Peoples.

Mrs. Broughton, Mrs. Guess, and Miss Christian acted as judges, making their decisions by means of flash cards. After the diving exhibition, Mary Lynn Lewis gave what may be termed a "shimmy dive." Fannie Cooper demonstrated a headstand dive, and there were several double dives. As a grand finale, Marion Gaither appeared as a femme fatal, glamour, naive, slim little Miss Whiz, "she's the best there is."

One of the highlights of the evening was Miss Lalor's all too familiar "Girls, hush" when the spectators became too enthusiastic.

The final score was 173 1/3 to 171 in favor of the Sigma's.
