Centennial Drive Should Be Completed By Thanksgiving

Lee And Spilman Are Elected To Presidencies

Goal of $350,000 Not Yet Half Reached As Drive Nears Close

Returns are still coming in from Saint Mary's Centennial Fund Campaign. The campaign is not closed, and considerable activity is expected in Eastern Carolina during the month of October. By Thanksgiving, November 23, the drive will probably be ended, and it is hoped that the goal of $350,000 will be reached. Miss Margaret Hopkins, secretary of the Alumnae Association, said, "Returns have not come in as promptly as expected. However, we have reason to believe we will reach our goal by November 23."

FINANCIAL FIGURES

The total contributions to date are $152,000. The city of Raleigh, including the alumnae, have contributed $57,300, going way beyond their goal of $52,000 made in July.

The total alumnae goal is $70,000. Exclusive of Raleigh, contributions have reached $47,444.30; and the Raleigh alumnae have given a total of $7,952.50, thus bringing the contributions to $55,396.80.

ORGANIZATION

The campaign is divided into five separate organizations, which are the Diocesan, Alumnae, and Parents' Committees, the city of Raleigh, and special gifts. The Rt. Rev. Edwin A. Penick is chairman of the Diocesan Committee with Rev. I. Harding Hughes acting as the Diocesan Clerical Director. Mrs. Louis V. Sutton of Raleigh is chairman of the Alumnae Committee and has sent letters to all alumnae who have not yet contributed, as some could not be reached before.

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Centennial Campaign is to raise funds for the needs of the school, which mainly call for: new boiler plant and laundry, a new science hall, a new dormitory, similar to Holt Hall, a new Chaplain's house, new furniture and kitchen equipment and the landscaping of the grounds.

Little Sisters At Saint Mary's

Many new girls at Saint Mary's are sisters of former students. Down on first floor East Wing it looks as if it were a reunion with a Bassett, a Pless, and a Murphy back again. Hettie Murphy tells that Georgia (h.s. '44) is studying anthropology and geology at George Washington University. Marjorie Pless' sister, Ann Neal ('39-'40) is married and living in Marion. Kathryn Bassett looks like her sister, "Little Betty," who is now a senior at Hollins.

Frances Stribling had a great deal to say about "Bunny," who is living in Pensacola with her husband and little girl. "Bunny" was chairman of the Hall Council ('42), but now she's a lady of leisure with a MAID.

Third floor Smedes has its share of familiar names also. Catherine Quintard's two sisters, Mary Shepherd ('39) and Jervy ('37) are married. Mary Shepherd has two children and is living in Waycross, Ga. Jervy is with her husband and little girl in Sewanee, Tenn. Kathryn Fulton and Sallie Lee tell that their sisters, Jean (Chief Marshal in '42) and Mildred (Chief Dance Marshal in '42), are going to New York to work with American Airlines. Suzelle Hull's sister Anne (Bus. '42) is at Hollins this year. Katherine Royall says that Lib ('43) is visiting an aunt in California. Louise "Shrimp" Eggleston (Bus. '42), Lloyd's sister, works in Norfolk and is also busy with Nurse's Aide and Junior League. Penny Fagan says that Connie ('37) is overseas as a staff assistant in the Red Cross. Betty Smith's sister Chita ('39) is living in Birmingham with her little boy.

"Ginger" Young is carrying on in fine family tradition, except no one has seen her knitting on an orange sweater yet. Her sister Alma ('44) is at Carolina majoring in sociology. Margaret Martin's sister "Chinkie" ('44) is there, too.

Saint Mary's "Pin-Up-Boy" Will Be Chosen Next Week

Proceeds Will Go To the Centennial Fund.

G.I. Joe has his pin-up girls and we all know perfectly well that we have our own "rogue galleries." So let's see which man has the potentialities of the S.M.S. pin-up boy.

A contest, sponsored by the Publications' Staff, for this title will be held next week. Bring your man's picture—formal or snapshot—to Holt Parlor on Tuesday between two and six or from nine-thirty to ten.

Be sure to write your name and room number on the back of your entries and be sure to register them with the girl in charge. The exhibit will be open to the school after the pictures are judged.

All entries will be classified as snapshots and portraits of servicemen and civilians. From these groups the handsomest and cutest will be chosen. The handsomest serviceman will automatically become pin-up boy.

There will be a charge of ten cents per entry, and proceeds will go to Saint Mary's Centennial Fund.

Be sure to enter his picture.

Temporary Hall Presidents Are Appointed

Although permanent hall presidents have not yet been elected, the hall teachers have appointed temporary ones. Here's the list:

1st Holt, Mary C. Bowers; 2nd Holt, Nancy Wood; 3rd Holt, Betsy Durham; 1st West Rock, Kathryn Lane; 2nd West Rock, Elizabeth Thomas; 1st West Wing, Betty Goodwyn; 2nd West Wing, Helen Mardre; 3rd West Wing, Marshall Bryan; 2nd Smedes, Anne Stevens; 3rd Smedes, Sallie Lee, Katherine Royall; 1st East Wing, Hettie Murphy; 2nd East Wing, Jane Dickey; 3rd East Wing, Frances Williams; 2nd East Rock, Mollie Hazen.

And the vice-presidents are: 2nd Smedes, Christine Gray; 2nd East Wing, Mary Gilmer Cocker.

Paper is essential to the war effort; do not throw it away! Collect old newspapers and magazines, bundle them separately in stacks between twelve and eighteen inches high, and pile them at the end of your hall. Miss Marjorie Lalor would like for girls to volunteer to collect the scrap paper on their halls. Please give your name to Miss Lalor either at her room on first floor West Wing or the Biology Lab.

Senior Class Elects Officers; Clubs Name Officials; Cheer Leaders Are Chosen

Sallie Lee, of Goldsboro, has been elected president of the junior class for this year. Sallie graduated last year from Goldsboro High School, where she was a cheer leader, a member of the Girl's Sports Club, feature editor of the school paper, and a member of "Quill and Scroll."

Lila Spilman, of Turnersburg, North Carolina, was elected yesterday as president of the freshman class for the ensuing year. "Sandy" attended Saint Mary's last year, during which time she did outstanding work in dramatics—remember her as Fuffy in Junior Miss?

Sophomore and business class elections and the election of the remaining officers of the junior and freshman classes will take place next week.

SENIOR OFFICERS

During a meeting last week, the members of the senior class chose Miss Genevieve Senecal for their sponsor. Nancy Wood was elected vice-president of the class at the same time. Ruth Hayes is class secretary, and Carrie Mae Wade is treasurer. Mary C. Bowers will represent the senior class in the Legislative Body. The senior dance marshals are Jane Peete, Betty Lou Hood and Mary Holmes.

Ann Cutts has recently been elected president of the day students.

CLUB OFFICERS

Many club officers have also been elected in the past week. Nancy Wood is now president of the Granddaughters' Club, and Sallie Robertson is vice-president. The Canterbury Club has as its new officers Roberta Bryant, secretary, and Susan Thorp, treasurer.

The French Club elections were held last night, and Lucy Seaman was elected president with Frances Avera vice-president. Ann Edmunds is secretary of this club, and Eleanor Thomas treasurer.

CHEER LEADERS

The cheer leaders this year will be Helen Fleenor, Sibyl Goerch, Frankie Shamburger and Jean Sullivan for the Mu's and Frances Avera, Benning Burgard, Katherine Royall and Mary Glen Slater for the Sigma's.

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

- October 7—Sigma-Mu Party.
- October 18—Tea for Raleigh friends and patrons.
